THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT

OF

THE DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

I RESPECTFULLY beg leave to submit to Your Majesty my Annual Report of the proceedings in the Public Record Office, for the year 1877.

I. NEW PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE ACT; RULES AND REGULATIONS, &c.

By an Act of Parliament passed on the 14th August 1877, entitled "An Act to amend the Public Record Office Act, 1838," (40 & 41 Vict. c. 55,) power was given to the Master of the Rolls, with the approval of the Treasury, &c., to make rules for the disposal of documents (subsequent to 1715) not of sufficient public value to justify their preservation in the Public Record Office; and the Records of the late Masters of the High Court of Chancery were placed under his charge and superintendence.

(1.) The Master of the Rolls has under consideration the best means to be adopted for carrying out the first portion of the Act, viz., the removal of documents not of sufficient importance from the Public Record Office.

(2.) With regard to the second portion, the Master of the Rolls, on the 26th September 1877, made the following Rules respecting the consultation of the Chancery Masters' Documents:—

RULES made by the MASTER of the ROLLS, respecting the Chancery Masters' Documents in his charge and superintendence, pursuant to Statute 40 & 41 Vict. c. 55.

1. Any person wishing to inspect, or have copies of, the Chancery Masters' Documents, shall address a letter to the Master of the Rolls, stating the nature and object of the search.

2. Except under very special circumstances, no person will be allowed to inspect, or have copies of, the Documents, unless he satisfies the Master of the Rolls, by prima facie evidence, either that he claims under one of the parties to the Cause, who, if living, would be entitled to inspect the Documents, and that he would be a person entitled to revive the Cause if it were effective; or else that he has a right to the Documents themselves.

3. The Master of the Rolls, should he see no objection to the application, will then, subject to the consent of the Treasury being obtained by the parties, give the necessary permission.

4. The Fees are the same as those in the Regulations of the Master of the Rolls of 24th May 1875.

(Signed) G. JESSEL, M.R.

26th September 1877.

In order to facilitate such inspections, &c., the following form has been approved by the Master of the Rolls and by the Treasury :—

PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE,

CHANCERY MASTERS' DOCUMENTS.

(Public Record Office Act, 1877, 40 & 41 Vict. c. 55.)

_____ having applied to me for permission to inspect, or have copies of, certain of the Chancery Masters' Documents in my charge, in the suit of _____ _____ and having satisfied me by sufficient evidence that the case comes within Rule 2 of the Regulations of 26 September 1877, I hereby give such permission, subject to _____ obtaining the consent of the Treasury.

On behalf of the Treasury, I hereby consent to the application
of _____

Treasury Chambers,

Several applications to inspect and have copies of the Masters' Records above referred to, have been made and complied with.

II. RECORDS OF THE DUCHY OF LANCASTER.

Since the last Report on the proceedings of the Public Record Department which I had the honour of laying before Your Majesty, the National Archives have been again enriched by Your Majesty's royal and munificent donation of the important and interesting private muniments appertaining to the Honor of Halton in the County Palatine of Chester, being a portion of the possessions of Your Majesty's ancient Duchy of Lancaster.

These muniments consist of numerous Rolls relating to the Honor of Halton, with its six dependent manors of Runcorn, Moor, Thelwall, Over Whitley, Cogshall, and Congleton, in the County of Chester, and also with its other dependent manor of Widnes, in the County of Lancaster.

They include Plea Rolls, Suit Rolls, Court-leet Rolls, Copyhold Rolls of the Manor, Annual Court Rolls, Presentments, Books of Account, and the Steward's Books.

Mr. William Beamont, of Orford Hall, Warrington, who for many years had the custody of these muniments, in a very learned and interesting Report upon them, observes that "an examination of their contents shows how little the political and other convulsions of the kingdom have affected the course of proceedings at Halton during five centuries. The Crown has been usurped and the Government changed several times, but, except where time has antiquated some of its proceedings, the Court at Halton has held steadily on its course. The English, more than any other people, cling to old institutions, modifying them when needful, but at the same time careful not to overthrow them."

These Records set out a variety of historical facts, impart many historical notices and traits of ancient manners and customs, and will afford much new material to the student of History.

Among the Records brought from the County Palatine of Lancaster (Thirty-fifth Report, Appendix No. 2) were two bundles containing Inquisitions post mortem from Richard II. to Elizabeth. As the existence of these Inquisitions has only lately become known, a Calendar of them has been made and is annexed to this Report (Appendix No. 3). Prefixed to the Calendar, is a statement relating to their value.

III. FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS, &c., BY PROCESS OF PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

The operations sanctioned by the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, for printing, by Photozincography, fac-similes of Anglo-Saxon Charters, have been continued during the year; the Charters deposited in Canterbury Cathedral are nearly finished. Further details of the progress will be found in the Report of Mr. Sanders, the Assistant Keeper of the Public Records, stationed at the Ordnance Survey Office (Appendix No. 4).

IV. CALENDARS AND TRANSCRIPTS.

The progress made in the Calendars during the year is mentioned in § XII.

The third and last portion of Mr. Turner's Calendar of the Recognizance Rolls of the Palatinate of Chester, from 1 Hen. V. to 11 Geo. IV., is annexed to this Report (Appendix No. 1). It comprises the portion from 1 Hen. VIII. to the end of the series. This Calendar (on which Mr. Turner has worked assiduously and carefully for many years) affords invaluable materials for historical, biographical, genealogical, and literary purposes.

The continuation of the Calendar of Exchequer Depositions taken under Commission, for the reign of Charles I., is also annexed in the Appendix (No. 2). A further portion of the Calendar will be given with the next Report.

Of the Calendars of State Papers printed for sale (of which series 95 volumes have been published), seven volumes were published, and 686 volumes were sold, in 1877, making a total of 10,459 volumes. The present state of the printed Calendars will be found in the Appendix (No. 6). The volumes published in 1877 were :—

(1.) The Fifteenth Volume of the Calendar of Domestic State Papers for the reign of Charles I., edited by Mr. W. D. Hamilton. The Papers calendared in the Volume extend from October 1639 to the end of March 1640, and relate chiefly to events between the close of the first campaign against the Covenanters and the assembling of the Short Parliament, &c.

(2.) The Third Volume of the Calendar of Domestic State Papers during the Commonwealth, edited by Mrs. Everett Green, has been published, extending from January to October 1651. It comprises the closing portion of the year of the second Council of State, and almost the whole proceedings of the third Council. The principal events relate to the uneasiness felt by the English Government by the movements of Charles II. in Scotland, the sympathy expressed therewith in many parts of England, and the measures taken by Parliament. In this year the Battle of Worcester was fought, and many Papers calendared in the Volume relate thereto and to subsequent military operations.

(3.) The Second Volume of the Calendar of Documents relating to Ireland, edited by Mr. H. S. Sweetman, extends from 1252 to 1284. The documents calendared in this Volume relate to the Irish Government, the Church, the Crusades to the Holy Land during that period, the Irish Exchequer, the Mint, to Irish Kings and Princes, Lands, Markets, Merchandise, Trade, Monasteries, &c., &c.

(4.) The Fourth Volume of the Calendar of Irish State Papers, of the reign of James I., has been edited by the Rev. C. W. Russell, D.D., and Mr. John P. Prendergast. This Volume comprises four years (1611–1614). The contents principally relate to the original scheme of the Ulster Plantation, and the modifications subsequently introduced into it; to the disputes in the Parliament of 1613; and to the pirates infesting the Irish Seas.

(5.) The Tenth Volume of the Calendar of Foreign State Papers, of the reign of Elizabeth, edited by Mr. A. J. Crosby, for the years 1572, 1573, and 1574. The principal events mentioned during those periods are the trial and execution of the Duke of Norfolk, the Massacre of St. Bartholomew, the Siege of Rochelle, the Defeat of the Scots and execution of Kirkcaldy of Grange, &c., &c.

(6.) A large Volume of the Calendar of Letters, Despatches, and State Papers relating to the negotiations between England and Spain during the reign of Henry VIII., preserved in the Archives at Simancas and elsewhere, edited by Don Pascual de Gayangos. This is the second part of the Third Volume of the Spanish Series, and comprises the period from January 1527 to May 1529, ending with the preliminaries for the Peace of Cambray. In the introduction to the Volume, much biographical and literary information is given relating to the writers of the correspondence, principally the Imperial Agents in Italy. Some transcripts have also been received from Don Pascual de Gayangos.

(7.) The Sixth Volume (Part I.) of the Calendar of State Papers and Manuscripts, relating to English affairs, existing in the Archives, Collections, and Libraries of Venice and Northern Italy, edited by Mr. Rawdon Brown. This part extends from January 1555 to October 1556, and the second part will probably come down to the end of the reign of Queen Mary. The Volume commences with congratulations from the Doge of Venice to the Queen on the return of England to the Roman Catholic faith, and contains many interesting particulars relating to the Princess Elizabeth, Cardinal Pole, Philip of Spain, the Queen's expected confinement, &c., &c. Mr. Rawdon Brown has also transmitted nine more Volumes of transcripts of important documents in the Archives of Venice relating to British History, making a total of 100 Volumes; and heliotype reproducing receipts from Titian and Tintoret. Mr. Ruskin has also presented photographs of 23 receipts by Tintoret for monies paid to him by the "Scuola," or Confraternity of S. Rocco, from 1558 to 1594.

Mr. William H. Bliss (who succeeded the Rev. Joseph Stevenson) commenced his researches at Rome in January 1877. He has carried on his operations during the year, and 10 bundles of transcripts have been received from him. Mr. Bliss experienced some difficulties on commencing his duties, but they have been eventually removed by the kind and zealous interposition of Cardinal Manning, Cardinal Cullen, and the Earl of Denbigh. Arrangements have also been made for the employment of another transcriber to work throughout the year under the direction of Mr. Bliss. Two additional bundles of transcripts have been received from Mr. Stevenson since his resignation.

M. Armand Baschet has continued his researches in the Public Libraries and Archives of Paris for Documents relating to British History. He has made several reports of his proceedings, and transmitted 10 additional parcels in the year 1877. Among the Documents transmitted, is a List of the Despatches from the French Ambassadors in England, preserved among the Archives of France (Appendix No. 8). The List has been framed by M. Baschet, and contains many illustrative notes; it forms a supplement to the list of the same Ambassadors, annexed to my Thirty-seventh Report (Appendix No. 3).

V. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

Five volumes of the works in this series were published in 1877, making in all 149 volumes. 778 volumes were sold in the year, making a total of 32,022 volumes. A list of the publications during the year, and of the works in progress, is given in Appendix (No. 7). There is no diminution in the reputation which the Chronicles and Memorials have acquired at home and abroad.

VI. SHAFTESBURY PAPERS.

In my Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, and Thirty-fifth Reports to Your Majesty, I had the honour to state that the Earl of Shaftesbury had presented various important papers, relating to his Family History, to this Office at different times. His Lordship, 9 March 1877, forwarded a further portion, which has been incorporated with those previously sent. A Report upon the Papers is annexed (Appendix No. 5), a copy of which has been transmitted to the Earl of Shaftesbury.

VII. FIRE AND OTHER PRECAUTIONS.

It is mentioned in my Thirty-eighth Report (§ V.) that the large room in the Record Repository, hitherto used as a copying room, was, by the authority of the Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, to be converted into a Record Room, for the deposit and greater security of Records which had been exposed to inclement weather; and this alteration has been carried into effect, and certain Records removed thereto.

An outbreak of fire, by which the premises of the Scottish Corporation, near Fleet Street, were destroyed, took place in the night of 14 November, and at one time considerable danger was apprehended to some houses close to the Record Repository. The police were in attendance, and the precautions, watchings, &c., mentioned in the Thirty-seventh Report (§ V.), were tested on this occasion and found eminently successful.

Another source of danger to the Records occurred on 27 November, when, in consequence of very heavy rains, the water penetrated through the top floors of three houses in the Rolls Yard containing Records. The precautions above alluded to were again found most efficacious; the police assisted in removing the books, which did not sustain material damage.

VIII. FEES: GOVERNMENT AND OTHER BUSINESS, &c.

The amount of Business in the Search Office, and of Fees received, in 1877, is as follows:—

665 Copies - - -	406	3	6
163 Attendances - - -	146	11	6
	£552	15	0

The total amount of Fees received, and paid to the account of the Consolidated Fund, from 1840, is 28,172*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.*

The number of registered applications for Records in the Search Office by the Public, in 1877, was 24,234, each application being on an average for more than ten documents. This number does not include the daily inquiries for information, which are verbally answered and disposed of. Before their production to searchers, 26,141 membranes and leaves were stamped, a regulation which, without danger to the safety of the Public Muniments, cannot be dispensed with. This number is in addition to 12,245 membranes and leaves which had been previously stamped, and were reproduced, making a total of 38,386 membranes and leaves consulted by searchers in 1877.

The amount of work performed specially for Government Departments during 1877 is as follows:—

NUMBER of SEARCHES, INSPECTIONS, ISSUES, and RETURNS of GOVERNMENT PAPERS, for GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS, in 1877.

Departments.	Number of Searches or Applications.	Number of Inspections, Issues, Returns, &c.
Treasury - - - - -	63	1,237

Ecclesiastical Commissioners - - - - -	2	3
Patent Office - - - - -	21	23
Chancery - - - - -	4	4
Total - - - - -	787	12,091

The preceding table does not, however, give an adequate idea of the extent of business transacted in the Public Record Office for the Government Departments, inasmuch as searches for, and references to, the Documents wanted, often occupy many days; and long copies of Documents are frequently required by and made for those Departments.

23,695 Books and Papers have been stamped before transmission to Government Departments. These are not included in the number stamped for searchers above-mentioned.

The examination into the Documents belonging to the late Masters of the Court of Chancery has been continued. The new arrangements, pursuant to the Act 40 & 41 Vict. c. 55., have been previously mentioned (§ I.).

The assistance afforded by the Record Officers to the Historical Manuscripts Commission has been continued (Thirty-eighth Report, § VI.); and repairs of some Documents for the Commission have been executed.

In the Thirty-eighth Report (§ VI.) it is mentioned that a Return had been made for the House of Commons of the names of Members returned to serve in Parliament from 1696 to 1876. Another similar Return was ordered (9 March 1877) of the Members, from as remote a period as can be obtained, to be added to the previous Return, with other information. The Return is now in progress, and will occupy considerable time. A Return has also been ordered by the House of Lords (13 July 1877) for a return of Members of Parliament from 1696 to 1876. Two other Returns to Orders of the House of Lords have also been made, relative to Warrants issued by the Master of the Rolls, of great length.

IX. TRANSFERS AND REMOVALS.

Transfers of Documents have been made into the Office during the year 1877, from the House of Lords; from the Clerks of Records and Writs, the Petty Bag Office, and the Enrolment Office, Chancery; from the Treasury, the Treasury Solicitor, the Home Office, War Office, Admiralty, Duchy of Lancaster, Exchequer and Audit Department, Paymaster-General's Office, and late Metropolitan Buildings Office; amounting to 1,050 rolls, 5,121 volumes, 1,626 bundles, parcels, portfolios, &c., 12 membranes, and 6 chests. These transfers are in addition to the Shaftesbury Papers, previously mentioned (§ VI.).

X. ARRANGEMENT, REPAIRS, BINDING, AND SIMILAR OPERATIONS.

The important duties of repairing and arranging the Records have been carried on in the usual manner during the year viz., 8,549 volumes and bundles have been arranged; 1,004 membranes and leaves have been flattened; 21,368 membranes and leaves guarded; 830 membranes, 8 bundles, and 23,099 leaves repaired; 24 rolls and volumes, 745 membranes, and 20,541 leaves sewed; 23,142 membranes and leaves repaired by the process of sizing; 5 bundles and 24,540 leaves numbered; 343 bundles and 22,415 membranes stamped; 140 membranes cleaned; 5,763 bundles, &c., tied up, 2,981 rolls and 1,118 bundles ticketed; 25 files re-filed; 1,301 tickets made, printed, and stamped; 30 bundles dusted; 12,697 Domestic and Treasury Papers examined with printed Calendars, and arranged for binding; many other Papers incorporated with the series to which they belong; 529 volumes bound, bindings repaired, &c.; slips of indexes, &c., arranged alphabetically, &c.; lists of Documents made, stitched, &c.; 2,093 Cases, Inquisitions in Lunacy, &c., arranged chronologically, &c.

CHAUNTRELL.

1512, William, inspeximus and exemplification of a record of proceedings on
 Aug. 10. a traverse by the said William of an inquisition taken at Halton, 16 Oct., 21 Hen. 7., finding, inter alia, that Henry Duke of Lancaster being lord of the manor of Halton, on Mich. in the 34th year of Edw. 3., and a long time before, was seized in his demesne, as of fee, of the manors of Dunham-Masey, Hale, and Altringham, as parcel of the said lordship; that William Chauntrell occupied a moiety of the manor of Hale from the 1st July in the 10th year of the said King until the taking of the inquisition, unknown by what title or authority, and that the said moiety was of the annual value of 20*l.*; the said William Chauntrell, 26th May, 1 Hen. 8., traverses the above finding, and says that, Henry Duke of Lancaster was seized of the said manors in the 29th year of Edw. 3., and gave the same, in fee-simple, among other lands, by the name of all the manors, lands, and tenements which he the said Duke had purchased in the county of Chester, and which were of Hamo Masey, to Roger le Straunge and Richard Longmore, rector of the church of Nesse, by virtue of which gift the said Roger and Richard were seized thereof, Roger in his demesne, as of fee, and Richard in his demesne, as of freehold, that the said Roger survived the said Richard, and was seized alone of the said manors in his demesne, as of fee, per jus accrescendi; that after the death of the said Roger, the said manors descended to Richard Lestraunge as kinsman and heir of the said Roger, viz., son of John son of the said Roger; that a fine was levied of the said manors, 6 Hen. 6., between Richard Radcliff, James his son, Henry Longley, James Strangways, junior, Henry de Radcliff, and Thomas son of John de Radcliff, Kt., plts., and Richard Lestraunge, of Knokyn, Kt., and Constance his wife, dfts., by which the said manors were acknowledged to be the right of the said Richard and Constance, who granted the same to the said Richard and others as above, in trust, to the use of Robert Bothe, Kt., Thomas Stanley, Kt., and William Chauntrell, who at the instance of the said Robert, Thomas, and William gave the same manors to Thomas Bolde, William Chauntrell, Robert del More, John Assheton, William Bothe, clerk, Seth de Workesley, Thurstan de Longley, clerk, and Richard Ewodde, clerk, to the use of the said Robert Bothe, Kt., Thomas Stanley, Kt., and William Chauntrell, who, with the assent of the said Robert, Thomas, and William, by a charter, 30 July, 12 Hen. 6., made a partition of the said manors, viz., the said Thomas Bolde, William Chauntrell, Robert del More, and John Assheton to have to them and their heirs in severalty, for ever, all the messuages, lands, and tenements in Hale, to the use of the said Thomas Stanley and William Chauntrell; that William Bothe, Seth Thurston, and Richard Ewodde should have, in like manner, all the messuages, lands, and tenements in Altringham, and all the messuages, lands, tenements, and mill in Dunham-Masey, to the use of the said Robert Bothe, Kt.; that another partition of the said manor of Hale was made 8 Nov., 5 Edw. 4., viz., with the assent of the said Thomas Stanley and John Chauntrell, the said John Chauntrell to have all the lands, tenements, rents, and services, which the said Thomas and John should have received, "per fortunam suam," in allowance for his share of the aforesaid manor; that the lands and tenements were in the possession of William Chauntrell in the said inquisition specified, and were a moiety of the manor of Hale aforesaid; that the same John Chauntrell, by his writing, 10 Dec., 5 Edw. 4., quitclaimed to the said Thomas Stanley, Kt., all right to the lands which were assigned to him the said Thomas by the said division; and the said Thomas quitclaimed to the same John all his right to the lands assigned by the division to the aforesaid William, by virtue of which the same John Chauntrell was seized in severalty of the said lands and tenements, GRUFFIN—GRUFFYN.

- 1549, May 3. Nicholas, kinsman and heir of Robert Gruff', writ of "certiorari" to the justice of Chester touching the traverse of an inquisition taken on Monday next after the Feast of St. Katherine, 14 Ric. 2. [2 & 3 Edw. 6. m. 2 d. (1).]
- June 24. —, inspeximus and exemplification, at the instance of Richard Nuthall, of a return to the above writ, setting forth the inquisition above-mentioned, viz., that Richard de Kyngeslegh, Lord of Kyngeslegh, alienated to the abbot and convent of St. Werburgh the town of Catenhall, parcel of the fee of Kyngeslegh, and held of the Earl of Chester, in capite, by knight's service and the finding of two chaplains to perform divine service for ever; that the said town was of the yearly value of five marks; that a certain abbot of the said house alienated the said town to one William Gerrard, senior, and his heirs for ever, and that one Peter Gerrard, Kt., alienated the said town to one Robert Gryffyn and his heirs for ever; in traverse of which inquisition one Nicholas Gruffyn, kinsman and heir of the aforesaid Robert Gryffyn, to wit, son of John son of the same Robert, says that the town of Catenhall was but two messuages, eighty acres of land, one water-mill, three acres of meadow, and two acres of wood; that in the time of Henry son of King John, one Richard de Kyngeslegh was seized of the said tenements with their appurtenances in his demesne, as of fee, and held them of Randal son of Randal Earl of Chester, by the service of one penny yearly, and gave the same a long time before the statute "de religiosis" to the abbot and convent of St. Werburgh, their heirs and successors for ever, by the service of finding two chaplains to perform divine service there yearly; that one Simon, late abbot, alienated the same manor to William Gerrard, senior, by the service of finding two chaplains as above, and by the service of 30s. yearly, and that at the time of the alienation the said Simon held it immediately of the said Richard Kyngeslegh; that the said William Gerrard had issue a son Peter, who after the death of his father entered upon the said manor, and was seized of the same until he enfeoffed Robert Gryffyn, grandfather of the said Nicholas; the jury found as in the traverse was set forth, whereupon a writ of "ouster le main" issued [2 & 3 Edw. 6. m. 2 d. (2).]

NO. 3.—DUCHY OF LANCASTER: CALENDAR OF LANCASHIRE INQUISITIONS POST MORTEM, &c.

AMONG the Records recently transmitted from the County Palatine of Lancaster (Deputy Keeper's 35th Report, Appendix No. 2) were two bundles containing several Inquisitiones post mortem during the period from Richard II. to Elizabeth. The existence of these documents was unknown at the time when the Calendar was compiled of the regular series of similar Inquisitions preserved in the Repository of the Duchy of Lancaster, according to a return made to the Select Committee of the House of Commons in the year 1800. That Calendar was published in 1823 under the authority of the Record Commission, and forms the first portion of Volume I., known by the title of "Ducatus Lancastriæ."

The usual answer given to the inquiries made for Inquisitions post mortem returned for Lancashire anterior to the date of those comprised in the "Calendarium Inquisitionum post mortem Ducatus Lancastriæ" has been, in accordance with what hitherto was believed to be the fact, that no others were known to be extant. Those now brought to light, although not numerous, are not immaterial. The contents of many of them, but not of all, were to some extent already open to Lancashire archæologists through the collections known as "Towneley's Abstracts of Lancashire Inquisitions." It is to be regretted, however, that the originals of by far the greater number of the documents referred to in the Towneley Abstracts are now deficient; their place of deposit, if they are yet in existence, remains to be sought for, although, it is feared, with but little hope of their recovery.

A volume of Christopher Towneley's MS. collections marked by him C. C., containing, besides a variety of other matter, abstracts of Lancashire Inquisitions post mortem, was some years ago lent to William Langton, Esq., one of the Council of the Chetham Society, by the late Mr. Towneley, of Towneley. In 1875 Mr. Langton edited the abstracts in two volumes for the Society, and in his introduction he tells us that the first series of "Towneley's Abstracts" is prefaced with the words, "These Inquisitions following, I had from Mr. Evan Walls, Keep. of the Rolls at "Lanc", the 26th of January 1659." It will scarcely be doubted that Towneley returned all the originals to the Keeper of the Rolls, inasmuch as some of those of which the abstracts were taken by him remained in the proper office at Lancaster until their recent removal to London. If any of the Inquisitions now wanting should hereafter be discovered, they may be restored to their proper place of deposit, and this Calendar has been so framed as to include them.

The following pages contain a Calendar of all Inquisitions, transmitted from the County Palatine, now preserved in the Public Record Office. In order to make the information more complete, a reference is made to the pages of Mr. Langton's edition, where the abstracts are given of those Inquisitions now extant, and the other Inquisitions abstracted by Towneley, of which the originals are at the present day wanting, are in like manner noticed and included in this Calendar in alphabetical order of the name of the person after whose death the Inquisition was taken.

Some, though very few, of the Inquisitions abstracted by Towneley are comprised in the "Calendarium Inquisitionum Ducatus Lancastriæ," and the originals are extant among the regular series in the Public Record Office. These are designated in the present Calendar by the letter H., and the corresponding page and volume of Towneley's abstracts are likewise added.

The Calendar of the Inquisitions post mortem here submitted is further supplemented by a notice or abstract in distinct alphabetical order of the general and special liveries of lands after the death of the ancestor in favour of the heir when of full age, and the grants of the wardship and marriage of the heir during minority.

These notices have been abstracted from the Registers of the Duchy of Lancaster during the reigns of Henry the 7th and 8th, Edward 6th, Philip and Mary, and Elizabeth, and from the original warrants when extant for the reign of Elizabeth.

The references to the several classes of the documents comprised in this Calendar, in order to avoid repetition in every case, are indicated by letters of the alphabet in this manner:—

- A. Lancashire Records, Chancery, miscellaneous—Inquisitions post mortem.
- B. Towneley's Abstracts of Lancashire Inquisitions. Edited by William Langton, Esq., Vols. I. and II.

No. 4.—MR. SANDERS' ANNUAL REPORT, for 1877, on FAC-SIMILES of ANGLO-SAXON CHARTERS, &c., photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton.

Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton,
February 1st, 1878.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit to you the following report upon the work performed at this office under my superintendence during the past year.

In my last report I specified the steps that had been taken for the commencement of the production by photozincography of a series of facsimiles of the Anglo-Saxon Charters, and the selection, agreeably to the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, of the collection belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury to form the first portion of such series. I also stated that the Lords of the Treasury had sanctioned the copying of the Canterbury collection, which had accordingly been made over to my custody by the Dean and Chapter.

I have now to report that the whole of these MSS. have been photozincographed, and that the full edition of 300 copies will shortly be pulled. The letter press, consisting of a preface by General Cameron, and transcripts, translations, and introduction by myself, is in the printer's hands. In pursuance of the further recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, that upon the completion of the Canterbury MSS., those belonging to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, and Rochester should next be copied, the Director-General, General Cameron, has applied for the necessary authority for continuing the publication of these very ancient and important records of the early public and domestic history of the English people. The Canterbury collection consists of 25 MSS., 22 of which are bound up in a large volume entitled "Diplomata vetustissima chartarum Ecclesiæ Christi Cantuariensis," in which they were some years ago arranged by Mr. Kemble, and the remaining three are loose. They are generally in fine condition and are as follows:—

No. I., purporting to be a grant by Æthelbald of Mercia in the year 742 of privileges to the Church, is a record of proceedings at the Synodal Council of Clovesho held in that year. The version printed in the Codex and Diplomatarium seems to have been taken partly from this MS. and partly from one in the British Museum. MS. Cot. Claud. D. IIf. 30 b.—the body of the charter from that in the British Museum, and the list of attesting witnesses from the Canterbury copy. Latin. Cod. Dip. LXXXVII. Dip. Angl. p. 26.

No. II. is a grant by Offa King of the Mercians, at the Synod of Celchyth in the year 788, to his Thane Osbert, with remainder to his wife and children, of land in Eastrý in Kent. Latin. Cod. Dip. CLIII.

No. III. is a grant by King Offa in 790 to Archbishop Æthelheard and the Church of Canterbury of land, two-thirds of the proceeds of which were to go towards the repair of the said Church, and the remaining third was to be applied to the clothing of the Brethren belonging thereto. In the Codex this charter is printed with an asterisk, not however from the Canterbury copy but from three others—two of which are contained in the "Registrum Ecclesiæ Christi Cantuariensis," and the third in an ancient abstract from that Register preserved in

No. 4.—Mr. Sanders' Annual Report for 1877—continued.

Lambeth Palace Library—which, as represented in the Codex, are faithful copies of the Canterbury MS. Latin. Cod. Dip. CLIX.

No. IV. is a decree made by Archbishop Æthelheard at a Synod held at Clovesho in 803, wherein, by command of Pope Leo III., whom he had visited in Rome together with Cyneberht Bishop of Winchester in 799, he denounces any attempt by the congregations of Monasteries to elect for themselves chiefs from among lay and secular persons. This declaration is to be found at full in the Saxon Chronicle under the year 796, and it also appears in the record of the Synod of Bapchild held in 798. This document does not appear in the Codex, but has been printed by Thorpe and Wilkins. Latin. Dip. Angl. p. 50, and Concilia, l. p. 167.

No. V. is a copy of the last, but of a later date, probably the eleventh century. The text is nearly identical with that of the original, but the character of handwriting is very different.

No. VI. is a deed whereby Coenwulf King of the Mercians, and Wulfred Archbishop of Canterbury, in the year 812, made a mutual exchange of lands situated in the neighbourhood of "the King's little Town of Faversham." The boundaries of the properties in question are recited in Latin instead of, as is usually the case in Anglo-Saxon charters, in the mother tongue. Latin. Cod. Dip. CXCIX.

No. VII. is a grant by Egberht Bretwalda to his Thane Ætheric of a parcel of land in Kent. In a recitation of the boundaries in Saxon it is stated that Ætheric paid the price of fifty mancuses for the land in question. This portion does not appear in the Codex. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCXXIV.

No. VIII. is a grant of land by Berchtwulf King of Mercia to his Thane Forthred. There is no date to this MS., but Berchtwulf reigned from 838 to 852. Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCXLIII.

No. IX. is a grant of land by Ealhere to Oswig and Weahtreath. There is no date to this MS., but it probably lies between 860 and 866. In the version printed in the Codex and Diplomatarium a line at the commencement which contains the boundaries has been left out. Latin. Cod. Dip. CCXCIII. Dip. Angl. p. 127.

No. X. is a grant of land by Æthelbert King of the West Saxons in 863 to his Thane Æthelred. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCLXXXVIII. Dip. Angl. p. 121.

No. XI. is a grant of land by Snithulf Bishop and the Brotherhood at Rochester to the Priest Biorhtwulf in 880. This MS. is one of the three among the Canterbury collection not bound up in the charter book. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCCIX.

No. XII. is a grant of land by King Ælfred in 898 to Duke Sighelm. The boundaries of the property recited in this charter do not appear in the Codex. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCCXXIV.

No. XIII. is an account, written in the form of a letter, of a dispute as to the possession of certain lands in Wiltshire, and the adjudication made thereon by order of the King. It gives no clue as to who the writer was, beyond that he must have been a person of rank and importance, and it contains no positive evidence of the date of its having been written, though we may assume that the person addressed was King Ælfred's son, Eadward the Elder. Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCCXXVIII. Dip. Angl. p. 169.

No. XIV. is a grant by King Æthelstan in 937 to the Monastery of St. Peter's, Exeter, of land at Topsham in Devonshire. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCCLXIX.

No. XV. is a grant by King Eadred, in 949, of the Monastery of Reculver to Christchurch, Canterbury. The list of subscribing witnesses to this charter includes Dunstan, the Abbot of Glastonbury. From the sentence then follows Dunstan's subscription, this charter has been accepted as being written in his own hand, but the copy preserved in the British Museum, though in a different hand, bears exactly the same attestation. The preference of authenticity in this respect has been conceded to the Canterbury MS. This is the second of the Canterbury MSS. not bound up in the charter book. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. CCCCXXV. Roach Smith. Antiquities of Richborough, Reculver, and Lymne, pp. 222–230.

No. XVI. is the testament of Ætheric, whereby he leaves all his property, except a legacy to his Lord, to his wife Leofwyne for her life, with remainder after her death to various religious houses. A thirteenth century endorsement gives the date 997. It is printed in the Diplomatarium under 970. Saxon. Cod. Dip. DCXCIX. Dip. Angl. p. 516.

No. XVII. is a cheirograph notifying the confirmation of Ætheric's will by King Æthelred the second. A thirteenth century endorsement gives the date 997. Saxon. Cod. Dip. DCCIV. Dip. Angl. p. 539.

No. XVIII. is the testament of the Ætheling Æthelstan, son of King Æthelred the Second by his first wife. This is the third of the Canterbury collection of Anglo-Saxon MSS. not bound up in the charter book.

No. XIX. is a charter by King Cnut in 1023, whereby he bestows his "head's kingly helm," placed by his own hands on the holy altar of Canterbury, and the harbour of Sandwich upon the Monks of Christ's Church. Saxon. Cod. Dip., with an asterisk, DCCXXXVII. Dip. Angl. p. 314.

No. XX. is the same charter in Latin. Cod. Dip. DCCXXXVII. Dip. Angl. p. 314.

No. XXI. is another copy also in Latin. The substance of this charter is copied into the beautiful little tenth century copy of the Gospels, known as "The Gospels of Mac Durnan," preserved in the Lambeth Palace Library.

No. XXII. is a demise by Archbishop Ægelnoth of Canterbury and his brother Giuehard Dean of St. Mary of a portion of land belonging to the Monastery of Reculver on lease to the two Thanes Alfwold and Ædred. The year in which this instrument was written is not given, but Ægelnoth was Archbishop of Canterbury from the middle of November 1020 till the end of October 1038. None of the witnesses' names have the cross attached to them, but they are supplied in the Codex, where the charter is printed with an asterisk. Latin. Cod. Dip. DCCLIV. Somner's Antiquities of Canterbury, Battely, Part I., Appendix, p. 43, No. XXXIX.

No. XXIII. is a cheirograph setting out the substance of a dispute between Ælfstan the Abbot and the Monastery of St. Augustine, Canterbury, and the Priest Leofwine, and its settlement by Earl Godwine in 1048. Saxon. Cod. Dip. DCCXC. Dip. Angl. p. 349.

No. XXIV. is a grant by Edward the Confessor in 1049 of land to his Thane Eadulf. None of the witnesses have the cross attached to their names. In the Codex the cross is supplied to each, and the boundaries of the property granted do not appear. Latin and Saxon. Cod. Dip. DCCLXXXVII.

No. XXV. is a cheirograph, whereby Thurstan bequeaths, after his death and that of Æthelgyth, a piece of land at Wimbish to the Monastery of Christ Church, Canterbury. This instrument is printed in the Codex, not from the Canterbury copy, but from one in the British Museum, Cott. Aug. 11. 34. Saxon. Cod. Dip. DCCLXXXVIII. Dip. Angl. p. 577. Hickes, D. E., p. 29.

Transcripts and translations of these MSS. are given page for page with the fac-similes. In making the transcripts, care has been taken to ensure their strict accuracy; and the original orthography of the names of persons and places has been preserved. The Latin documents are given in extenso as being better adapted for the general reader in that shape than if the contracted form had been preserved. The translations of the Latin MSS. have been made as nearly literal as the disregard shown by the original scribes for the rules of grammar and syntax will permit. The proems of many of the charters are almost unintelligible and quite untranslatable as they stand; and the meaning of portions of the charter itself is sometimes obscured by a strange mixture of Latin and Saxon words introduced into it apparently at the caprice of the writer.

I returned the whole collection to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury on the 13th of July last.

Subjoined is a statement of the sale of the various works that have been produced at the Ordnance Survey Office, by authority of the Lords of the Treasury, under my superintendence, up to December 31, 1876.

Doomsday Book published in complete sets of two volumes each at 20*l.* a set, and in counties at from 1*l.* 3*s.* 0*d.* to 8*s.* 6*d.* a county—three complete sets and 5,989 counties.

No. 8.—LISTS of DESPATCHES of AMBASSADORS from FRANCE to ENGLAND; HENRY VIII.—GEORGE I.; 1509—1714; with Remarks on their Correspondence. By M. Armand Baschet.

RÉPERTOIRE GÉNÉRAL de toutes les Dépêches et autres Documents appartenant aux Correspondances des Ambassadeurs de France successivement accrédités en Angleterre depuis le règne d'Henry VIII jusqu'au règne de Georges I., 1509—1714. Inventaire formé par M. Armand Baschet, d'après les textes conservés dans les différents dépôts de manuscrits tels que Bibliothèques et Archives en France.

PRÉFACE.

La publication suivante est un Répertoire chronologique de toutes les correspondances fournies par les AGENTS DIPLOMATIQUES FRANÇAIS accrédités en Angleterre depuis le règne d'Henry VIII. jusqu'à l'avènement de Georges I. (Avril 1509—Août 1714). Nous entendons par AGENTS, les Ambassadeurs ordinaires, les Ambassadeurs extraordinaires, les Envoyés avec le titre de Résidents, les personnes chargées d'une mission spéciale, et enfin les Secrétaires chargés temporairement des affaires du Roi.

Ce "Répertoire" est l'inventaire le plus complet qui puisse être fait de la correspondance française augmentée de pièces et documents divers existant aujourd'hui en manuscrits, et concernant l'Angleterre pour cette considérable période historique qui comprend successivement les règnes d'Henry VIII., d'Edward VI., de la Reine Mary, de la Reine Elizabeth, de Jacques I., de Charles I.; la République et le Protectorat, puis les règnes de Charles II., de Jacques II., de Guillaume III. et de la Reine Anne.

Il est l'exposé, journée par journée pourrions-nous dire, de toutes les pièces des correspondances vers lesquelles nous avons dû porter nos recherches par commission du Public Record Office dans les Bibliothèques et Archives de France, principalement au Département des Manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE, aux ARCHIVES NATIONALES et aux ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES.

Après avoir épuisé toutes les chances de découvertes parmi les documents authentiques et originaux; après rencontre faite de tous nos matériaux; nous avons procédé pour le classement des pièces ci-dessous indiquées, par l'énumération chronologique des ambassades réparties par règnes, entre les temps de Louis XII., de François I., de Henri II., de François II., de Charles IX., de Henri III., de Henri IV., de Louis XIII. et de Louis XIV. C'est donc l'INDEX de matériaux considérables et d'une particulière curiosité, dûs à des négociateurs qu'une habileté plus ou moins grande pouvait caractériser, mais qu'un intérêt égal devait stimuler dans la recherche, la précision, et la sûreté des informations.

Nous avons eu le soin de faire précéder chacune des divisions par règnes, d'une courte notice, dans laquelle nous avons exposé la variété des documents qu'on pourra s'attendre à trouver fournis par les ambassades successivement accomplies. C'est aussi dans ces notices que nous avons constaté, en les précisant, les lacunes qui existent dans les correspondances pour quelques-unes des périodes les plus anciennes, lacunes si regrettables, et que malgré les investigations les plus étendues et les démarches les plus diverses, il ne nous a pas été donné de pouvoir combler.

Nous avons, en somme, fait en sorte que ce RÉPERTOIRE présentât exactement la date de chaque Dépêche, la désignation du lieu d'où elle est partie, le nom de l'Agent qui l'a écrite ou dictée, le nom soit du Souverain, soit du Premier Ministre ou Secrétaire d'État à qui elle a été adressée et surtout—car c'est là le but principal d'un pareil travail—l'indication du dépôt de documents où ces correspondances ont été conservées, et où elles peuvent être consultées aujourd'hui par les curieux de l'histoire des négociations politiques et commerciales accomplies pendant le cours de deux siècles entre deux grands pays.

NOTICE SUR LES DOCUMENTS FRANÇAIS CONCERNANT LES NÉGOCIATIONS EN ANGLETERRE PENDANT LE RÉGNE D'HENRY VIII.

Les matériaux historiques français concernant les affaires générales et particulières du règne d'Henry VIII. forment un ensemble dont le détail se subdivise en documents de diverse nature et qui sont les suivants :—

1^o. Traités, Pactes et Conventions pour alliances offensives et défensives ; pour mariages entre princes et princesses des deux maisons royales ; pour obligations de finances, tels qu'emprunts, tributs de guerre, rançons, etc.

2^o. Lettres de Souverains et de Premiers Ministres échangées entre Henry VIII., Louis XII., François Premier, Madame Louise mère du Roi, les Reines, le grand-maître de France Montmorency, plus tard connétable, Wolsey, Cardinal d'York, le Duc de Norfolk, etc.

3^o. Lettres diverses et Dépêches ordinaires des personnalités envoyées avec Instructions en mission temporaire ou en Ambassade extraordinaire ou en résidence indéterminée à Londres pour traiter des affaires et suivre les négociations.

Les Traités, Pactes, Contrats et Conventions, dont l'illustre Rymer a d'ailleurs mis en lumière le plus grand nombre dans son monumental ouvrage des "Fœdera," se trouvent inventoriés au "Trésor des Chartes" dont la partie concernant les affaires de France avec l'Angleterre et l'Écosse, recueillie par M. Purton Cooper, Secrétaire des anciens "Commissioners on Public Records," a été intégralement publiée. Nous n'aurons donc pas à les reproduire ici.*

Les Lettres échangées entre le Roi Henry VIII. et les deux Rois de France, Louis XII et François Premier, Madame Louise, mère de ce dernier Roi et Régente, les Reines, les premiers Ministres, réparties et conservées dans les collections des Archives Nationales et du Département des Manuscrits de la Bibliothèque Nationale, méritaient une indication spéciale, présentée dans un tableau séparé que l'on trouvera placé à la suite de l'inventaire des correspondances concernant toutes les années du règne. Un grand nombre du reste se trouve déjà produit et analysé dans l'admirable ouvrage des "Letters and Papers, Foreign and Domestic, of the Reign of Henry VIII.," entrepris par M. J. S. Brewer, sous la direction du très Honorable "Master of the Rolls" et avec la sanction des Secrétaires d'État de Sa Majesté.†

Quant aux Lettres diverses et aux Dépêches ordinaires formant les correspondances diplomatiques que l'on regarde aujourd'hui avec raison comme étant incontestablement les éléments principaux de toute œuvre narrative nouvellement entreprise en histoire, ce sont elles qui, pour ce règne comme pour les suivants, ont le plus particulièrement exercé le soin de nos recherches, et ce sont elles surtout qui fournissent matière à ces inventaires d'actes uniquement dressés et publiés dans l'intérêt et l'avantage des historiens désireux de connaître le lieu, le nombre, le genre et la variété des sources manuscrites authentiques.

Il est à regretter que ce soit par des lacunes constatées dans les correspondances, que nous ayons à commencer le précis des recherches faites sur les documents du règne.

Les circonstances de guerre qui ont empêché l'échange de relations suivies entre les deux états pendant les années du gouvernement d'Henry VIII., qui correspondent à celles du gouvernement de Louis XII—Avril 1509—Janvier 1515—expliquent d'elles-mêmes la rareté des lettres et d'autres monuments écrits. On est de plus réduit à reconnaître comme à peu près irréparable la perte totale des pièces de correspondance qui ont dû exister sur les négociations entreprises par deux fois pour le rétablissement des bons rapports entre les deux couronnes.

C'est ainsi qu'on ne rencontre pas de Dépêches des trois négociateurs envoyés en 1510 à Londres pour traiter de la paix et qui étaient l'ABBÉ DE FÉCAMPS (Antoine Bohier), le BAILLY D'AMIENS (Raoul de Lannoy) et le MARÉCHAL ANTOINE DAURIZOLLES. Il ne nous est même rien revenu de ce dernier qui resta à Londres après la signature du traité, en qualité d'Ambassadeur ordinaire, si ce n'est le bruit de sa mort arrivée en Juin 1511, pendant son voyage pour revenir en France.

Jusqu'au mois de Juillet 1514, interruption complète dans les relations ; donc nulle Ambassade et par suite nulle correspondance.

* Il y a aussi, Syllabus (in English) of the Documents relating to England and other Kingdoms contained in the Collection known as "RYMER'S FŒDERA" (1066-1664), by Sir Thomas Duffus Hardy, Deputy Keeper of the Public Records (London, 1869-1873).

† Neuf volumes publiés depuis 1862, comprenant la période du règne de 1509 à 1530.

No. 8.—Lists of Despatches of Ambassadors from France—continued.

La commission donnée à Saint-Germain le 29 Juillet par Louis XII à Louis d'Orleans, Duc de Longueville, à THOMAS BOHIER, Général de Normandie et au Président JEAN DE SELVE pour traiter de la paix, qui fut, en effet, signée le 7 Août, en même temps qu'un pacte d'alliance et un contrat de mariage, permet de penser que ces Ambassadeurs n'ont pas dû demeurer en Angleterre pendant près d'un mois sans avoir adressé des courriers au Roi, non moins que le Sr. DE NEUFVILLE, Audancier de France, qui les suivit de près avec le Sr. de Marigny et le Sr. Jean Perréal, peintre du Roi, chargés de missions particulières auprès de la jeune Reine nouvellement épousée à Londres, par procuration de Louis XII., qui la vit arriver en France en Octobre. Mais si l'on a bien conservé la texte de la Commission du 29 Juillet produit par Rymer, ainsi que d'autres documents intéressants concernant les cérémonies du mariage, les fêtes, les présents, l'inventaire des meubles, toilettes et bijoux, les ratifications des pactes et contrats, il n'en a pas été de même des Dépêches proprement dites et des lettres particulières des Envoyés à Londres pendant l'accomplissement de leurs missions respectives. Puis, Louis XII vint à mourir peu de mois après la conclusion de cette paix et la réception de la reine.

François Premier dès son avènement voulut renouveler le traité de paix que son prédécesseur avait signé le 7 Août 1514 avec l'Angleterre, et les Ambassadeurs qu'il désigna en Mars 1515 furent JEAN DE SELVE, Premier Président de Bordeaux et PIERRE DE LA GUICHE, son Conseiller et Chambellan. Leurs lettres ne se sont pas retrouvées. ROBERT DE BAPAUME fut accrédité en qualité de Résident cette même année et on peut estimer le dommage de la disparition de sa correspondance ordinaire par l'intérêt que nous présente une lettre de lui du 6 Novembre qui a été conservée. On possède les "Instructions" de l'Ambassade accomplie en Septembre 1517 par le Conseiller PIERRE DE LA GUICHE et par ÉTIENNE PONCHER, Evêque de Paris, mais le silence est complet sur leur correspondance et rien ne s'est retrouvé non plus de la mission particulière confiée par cet évêque-négociateur à Jean Gobelin, son secrétaire auprès du Cardinal Wolsey, l'année suivante. Le Sr. DE NEUFVILLE suivit de près à Londres le départ de Gobelin. Il était allé préparer les négociations du mariage du Dauphin confiées aux Ambassadeurs extraordinaires qui parurent à la cour au mois de Septembre. Ils sont les premiers de qui la correspondance conservée parmi les manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE forme un petit groupe de renseignements et d'informations émanés directement d'une Ambassade de France auprès d'Henry VIII.

DE LA FIN D'OCTOBRE 1518 JUSQU'AU MOIS DE JUILLET 1521.

Depuis le retour en France des Ambassadeurs extraordinaires que le Roi avait envoyés à Henry VIII au mois d'août 1518, jusqu'à l'époque où les conférences furent ouvertes et tenues à Calais au mois de juillet 1521, les documents authentiques de correspondance concernant les relations et les négociations de la France avec l'Angleterre et qui ont été conservés dans les divers dépôts de manuscrits que nous avons explorés, sont malheureusement peu nombreux. Qu'est devenue la correspondance complète de l'Envoyé DENIS POILLOT, Sr. de Lailly, et d'Ogny, Premier Avocat au Grand Conseil, puis Maître des Requêtes et enfin Président au Parlement de Paris? François Premier l'accrédita deux fois Ambassadeur à Londres. Qu'est devenue la correspondance de son compaignon d'abord, puis successeur en la même Ambassade, OLIVIER DE LA VERNADE, Sr. de la Bastie, Conseiller et Chambellan du Roi? Les seules pièces de leur correspondance dont la conservation nous soit connue se trouvent dispersées en quelques manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE dont voici les indications :—

Années 1519 et 1520. Bib. Nat., Fonds Français, MS. 5,761.	Blois, 5 Decembre.	Lettre de l'Amiral de France au Duc de Suffolk.	Folio 30.
	" 6 Janvier.	L'Amiral au Sr. de la Bastie, Amba- sadeur pour le Roi en Angleterre.

" 3,003.	Amptel, 23 Juillet.	Lettre du Grand Maitre (Anne de Mont- morency) sur l'entrevue des deux Rois.	" 23.

Pendant l'espace de temps qui sépare la date de l'entrevue des deux Rois à Ardres jusqu'à l'ouverture des conférences à Calais sous la présidence du Cardinal d'York, c'est-à-dire de 1520 (Juin) à 1521 (Juillet), le Roi François Premier ne parait pas avoir eu à la Cour de Londres un Ambassadeur y résidant absolument, mais en revanche il confia plusieurs missions à différents personnages, tels que le Sr. DE LA ROCHEPOT, le Sr. DE MARIGNY, le Sr. DE MONPESAT, DENIS POILLOT et le Sr. DE LA BASTIE encore. Ces quelques lettres ou Dépêches que nous trouvons conservées en original parmi les manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE sont de ces deux derniers négociateurs. Elles nous amènent ainsi jusqu'à l'époque des conférences sur lesquelles les documents sont aussi complets qu'on les peut désirer.

Après que les conférences de Calais eurent été déclarées closes, le SR. DE LA BASTIE recut l'ordre de retourner en Angleterre comme Ambassadeur ordinaire. Nicolas DE VILLEROY dut le trouver à Londres lorsqu'il s'y rendit au mois de Janvier, chargé d'une mission particulière. Nous ne connaissons aucunes Dépêches de l'un et de l'autre, à cette époque; puis les relations entre les deux pays furent interrompues au mois de Juin 1522 et ne furent reprises qu'en 1524 pendant la captivité du Roi, par Madame Régente du Royaume, qui envoya secretément d'abord Jean Joachim de Passano, Sr. DE VAUX, puis ouvertement et comme négociateurs dûment accrédités, Messire JEHAN BRINON, Président au Parlement de Normandie et ce même Passano Sr. DE VAUX. Plusieurs des documents des négociations qui furent alors accomplies ont été publiés par M. Champollion-Figeac parmi les pièces qu'il a réunies pour servir à l'histoire de "La Captivité du Roi François Premier," et entr'autres celle-ci de l'année 1525 :

Instructions baillées par Madame la Régente au President de Ruen (Jean Brinon) pour en son nom aller devers le Cardinal d'York en Angleterre traiter de paix.

" Relation de ce qui fut négocié avec Henry VIII. et le Cardinal d'York par l'Evêque de Tarbes, le Vic. de Turenne et le Président Le Viste, Ambassadeurs du Roi François Premier, touchant le mariage de la fille du dict Roy d'Angleterre avec le dict Roy François et pour traicter une alliance contre l'Empereur Charles V. pour la delivrance des Enfants de France, rédigée par écrit par Claude Dodiet, Conseiller en la Cour de Parlement de Paris."

Après la publication des lettres closes du Roi François Premier données à Amiens le xix. jour d'Août de l'année 1527 pour la publication de la paix conclue avec l'Angleterre, le Roi forma une solennelle Ambassade, composée d'ANNE DE MONTMORENCY, Grand Maître de France, de JEAN DU BELLAY, Evêque de Bayonne, de JEAN BRINON, Premier Président du Parlement de Rouen, et du Sr. DE HUMYÈRES, Chambellan et Chevalier de l'ordre. Leurs lettres de créance sont datées de Compiègne le 25 Septembre. Les Dépêches de cette Ambassade extraordinaire, qui du reste ne fit pas à Londres un séjour de plus d'un mois, nous sont inconnues, mais celles de l'Ambassadeur détaché de cette compagnie illustre pour demeurer auprès du Roi d'Angleterre en qualité d'ordinaire et résident, nous ont été conservées soit en copies soit dans l'original. Un grand nombre d'entre elles sont du reste fort connues, ayant été publiées par l'Abbé Legrand dans les pièces, des "Preuves de l'Histoire du grand Divorce d'Henry VIII." Nous indiquerons ici les différents manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE qui contiennent les Dépêches de ce curieux négociateur, qui fut JEAN DU BELLAY, d'abord Evêque de Bayonne, puis Evêque de Paris. Mais une grande confusion causée le plus souvent par l'absence des dates rend le classement des pièces originales fort difficile. Le manuscrit qui les contient en copies déjà anciennes pour les années 1528 et 1529 est celui qui nous paraît présenter le plus de garanties de bon classement, bien qu'à vrai dire il ne contienne pas les Dépêches que du Bellay a dû écrire pendant le premier mois de sa résidence ordinaire (Novembre à Décembre 1527) après le départ des autres Ambassadeurs avec lesquels il était venu à Londres.

La période du règne d'Henry VIII., qui s'étend de la fin de l'année 1529 à la fin de l'année 1537, en ce qui concerne l'histoire des négociations de la France et de l'Angleterre, comprend tous les documents diplomatiques depuis la fin de l'Ambassade ordinaire de JEAN DU BELLAY, Evêque de Bayonne, jusqu'au commencement de l'Ambassade du Sr. DE CASTILLON. Pendant cet espace de huit années, nous avons encore de regrettables lacunes à mentionner dans la conservation des textes. On a de chacun des négociateurs justement assez pour suivre le précis et la suite des affaires, mais point suffisamment pour en avoir tout le secret. C'est dans cette période que nous voyons à l'œuvre successivement, soit à titre de résident soit à titre d'envoyé en mission extraordinaire et temporaire, le Sr. DE VAUX; GILLES DE LA POMMERAYE; GUILLAUME DU BELLAY; le Sr. DE MONFESAT; le Sr. DE DINTEVILLE, Bailly de Troyes; l'Amiral de France, PHILIPPE CHABOT; le Sr. DE MORETTE; l'Evêque de Tarbes, ANTOINE DE CASTELNAU, et le Sr. DE DINTEVILLE encore. Mais d'aucun, nous n'avons une correspondance complète, et ce que nous avons à indiquer ne sont que morceaux dont la part du Bailly de Troyes (le Sr. DE DINTEVILLE) est la plus grande, par suite de la facilité qui fut donnée cent ans plus tard à l'éditeur Camusat de faire copier pour les publier, divers manuscrits composés de pièces d'histoire écrites par plusieurs membres de cette famille qui se distingua si fort dans les emplois d'Etat au seizième siècle, particulièrement pendant le règne de François Premier.

1530.
MS. 3,014.	Londres, 5 Mars.	Jean Joachim de Passano, Sr. de Vaux, au Roi.	Folio 78.

† Les autres manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHEQUE NATIONALE qui renferment des Dépêches de l'Ambassade de Jean du Bellay, Evêque de Bayonne, auprès du Roi d'Angleterre pour les années 1527, 1528 et 1529 sont les suivants, répartis dans le fonds français : Nos. 3,015, 3,076, 3,077, 3,078, 3,079, 3,080 et divers autres de la série entre 3,005 et 3,151. Toutes les Dépêches y contenues sont originales, mais sans ordre de date.

La négociation d'un traité confiée en 1532 par le Roi François Premier à GILLES DE LA POMMERAYE, l'un de ses maîtres d'hôtel ordinaires, dut donner lieu à une très intéressante correspondance qui n'a pas été retrouvée, mais de l'intérêt de laquelle on peut juger par les lettres du Roi à cet Ambassadeur et qui se retrouvent en bon nombre conservées en copies dans un manuscrit de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE. A ce titre donc il nous a paru utile d'en reproduire l'état :—

Tous les manuscrits que nous avons examinés des Dépêches du Sr. DE CASTILLON arrêtent sa correspondance pour cette Ambassade au 12 Août 1538. Il est toutefois manifeste que cet Envoyé demeura plus longtemps à Londres. Le manuscrit xxxiii. du fonds Dupuy contient deux lettres de lui du 5 et du 17 Novembre adressées à M. de Paris (Jean du Bellay), mais nulle part nous n'avons trouvé de correspondance française écrite d'Angleterre qui pût nous éclairer sur les affaires traitées à Londres entre la dernière Dépêche du 12 Août 1538 de l'Ambassade du Sr. de Castillon et la première Dépêche du 11 Avril 1539 de l'Ambassade du Sr. de Marillac, qui fut son successeur.

No. 8.—Lists of Despatches of Ambassadors from France—continued.

1546. Aussitôt le traité du 7 Juin 1546 signé par l'Amiral d'Annebant aux confins d'Ardres et de Guines, le Roi François Premier fit choix d'un Ambassadeur pour résider en son nom en Angleterre. La correspondance entière de ce négociateur, qui fut ODET DE SELVE, nous a été conservée en son entier parmi les manuscrits du Président de Mesmes qui passèrent aux ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES. Odet de Selve fut le dernier des Ambassadeurs français qui ont négocié au nom du Roi François I. avec Henry VIII.

RÈGNE D'ÉDOUARD VI.

31 Janvier 1547—6 Juillet 1553.

ÉTAT DES DÉPÊCHES ET DOCUMENTS DES AMBASSADEURS DE FRANCE ACCRÉDITÉS PAR LE ROI HENRI II. À LA COUR D'ANGLETERRE.

Quatre Ambassades ordinaires et trois extraordinaires ont été accomplies au nom et pour le service du Roi de France, Henri II., à la Cour d'Angleterre pendant les six années et demi du règne d'Édouard VI. L'Ambassadeur ODET DE SELVE, qui était en résidence à Londres au moment de la mort d'Henry VIII., fut accrédité de nouveau par le Roi François Premier, qu'il ne représenta d'ailleurs que pendant deux mois sous le nouveau règne, ce prince étant venu à mourir le 31 Mars 1547. Le Sr. DE SELVE resta à la Cour de Londres jusqu'à la fin de l'année 1548, époque à laquelle les relations entre les deux couronnes furent interrompues pour n'être reprises qu'en 1550. Sa première négociation, dont l'objet fut de former une ligue défensive entre la France et l'Angleterre, a été traitée conjointement au Sr. DE LA GARDE, à qui le Roi avait donné commission le 14 Février. Ses Dépêches sont très nombreuses et ne se rencontrent qu'en minutes ou copies du temps dans trois registres conservés aux ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES.

Après que la paix de Boulogne eut été signée le 24 Mars 1550, il y eut une Ambassade extraordinaire de France à Londres pour recevoir la ratification du traité, et le nouvel Ambassadeur ordinaire fut le Sr. DE CHEMAULT, Conseiller et Prévôt de l'Ordre du Roi. Ses Dépêches se trouvaient conservées, il y a peu d'années encore, parmi les papiers de sa famille (Pot de Rhodes) aux archives de Bourges, mais elles ont, depuis, disparu dans un incendie. Nous en avons toutefois retrouvé quelques traces dans une analyse que l'érudite Baron de Girardot avait faite des papiers de cette famille illustre, quelques mois avant l'accident qui les a détruits.

Il n'existe pas de correspondances de l'Ambassade extraordinaire confiée au MARÉCHAL DE SAINT-ANDRÉ en Juillet 1551 non plus que de l'Ambassade ordinaire de CLAUDE LAYAL, Sr. DE BOISDAUPHIN, que le Maréchal avait amené avec lui pour succéder au Sr. de Chemault et qui fut rappelé au mois de Mai 1553, remplacé par ANTOINE DE NOAILLES, Conseiller du Roi et son maître d'hôtel ordinaire. Antoine de Noailles, dont la correspondance est conservée en minutes originales aux Archives des Affaires Étrangères, est le premier de cette belle dynastie diplomatique des Noailles, qui fut si dignement représentée tout d'abord par les trois frères successivement accrédités à la Cour d'Angleterre. L'Abbé de Vertot, au dix-huitième siècle, avait préparé pour les publier toutes les Ambassades de MESSIEURS DE NOAILLES, et tous les apprêts de cette publication se retrouvent aujourd'hui parmi les registres conservés. Une seule des Ambassades fut publiée après la mort de celui qui l'avait préparée pour l'impression et c'est précisément celle d'Antoine de Noailles, accrédité d'abord auprès d'Édouard VI., puis auprès de la Reine Marie.

L'état des papiers diplomatiques français pour servir à l'histoire des négociations pendant le règne d'Edouard VI s'étend donc aux seules correspondances ordinaires des Ambassadeurs ODET DE SELVE et ANTOINE DE NOAILLES et à quelques documents particuliers à la négociation du traité de Boulogne par Messieurs DE LA ROCHEFOU, DE CHASTILLON, DU MORTIER et GUILLAUME BOCHETEL.

* Après la mort du Roi François Premier, le Roi son fils, Henri II., rendit au Connestable de Montmorency la faveur qu'il avait perdue et lui remit aussitôt la direction des affaires étrangères. C'est ce qui explique ce brusque changement dans l'adresse des correspondances de l'Ambassadeur. Ce n'est plus à "Monsieur l'Admiral" que les Dépêches sont adressées, c'est à "Monseigneur le Connestable." Jusqu'à la date du 14 Avril, les Dépêches ont été écrites par ODET DE SELVE et le SR. DE LA GARDE (Antoine Escallin des Essartz), Capitaine Général des Galères, Gouverneur d'Etappes, fort connu alors à la Cour de France et employé dans les négociations sous le nom du "Capitaine Paulin."

† FRANÇOIS DE SCEPEAUX, SR. DE VIRILLEVILLE, vint alors à Londres comme Ambassadeur extraordinaire pour complimenter le nouveau Roi et pour confirmer la paix conclue avec le feu Roi. Il arriva le 24 Mai, porteur des lettres d'Henri II.

* Les papiers des Ambassades des trois frères de Noailles en Angleterre—ANTOINE DE NOAILLES, "Capitaine et Gouverneur de Bordeaux, Conseiller et maître d'hostel ordinaire du Roy;" FRANÇOIS DE NOAILLES, "Protonotaire, Aulmonier ordinaire du Roy," puis Evêque d'Aoçs; et GILLES DE NOAILLES, Abbé de l'Isle—se divisent en deux séries qu'il importe de consulter l'une et l'autre. La première a pour titre: "Dépesches et Memoires des Ambassades de Messieurs de Noailles" et s'étend du 23 Décembre 1552 au 7 Juin 1561; la seconde est: "Dépesches et Memoires moins importants des Ambassades de Messieurs de Noailles" et s'étend au même espace de temps. Ces deux séries existent à la fois en originaux et en copies formant un recueil de treize volumes. La copie de la première série est celle que l'Abbé de Vertot avait préparée pour l'impression et dont une seule partie a paru. Chacun des volumes en copie porte les mots "à imprimer." Voyez les récentes publications qui ont été faites sur les Noailles de cette époque: "Les Papiers de Noailles de la Bibliothèque du Louvre," publiés par M. LOUIS, PARIS, en 1875; puis "L'Introduction aux Lettres inédites de François de Noailles," publié en 1885 par l'érudit PHILIPPE TAMIZEY DE LABROQUE (Paris: Aubry); et en dernier lieu, "Antoine de Noailles à Bordeaux d'après des Documents inédits recueillis, publiés et annotés" par le même érudit (Bordeaux: Lefebvre, 1878).

† Pour lui donner avis que le Roi l'a nommé pour succéder au Maréchal DE BOISDAUPHIN dans l'Ambassade d'Angleterre.

‡ Le signe x. marqué à la marge pour les Dépeches et documents de l'Ambassade d'Antoine de Noailles désigne que chaque pièce ainsi annoncée n'a pas été publiée dans les pièces justificatives de l'édition de Leyde et Paris, 1763. "Ambassades de Messieurs de Noailles en Angleterre, rédigées par feu M. de Vertot. Ouvrage posthume de cet auteur." À Leyde et Paris, MDCCXLIII.

RÈGNE DE MARIE.

Juillet 1553—Novembre 1558.

ÉTAT DES DÉPÊCHES ET DOCUMENTS DES AMBASSADEURS DE FRANCE ACCRÉDITÉS PAR LE ROI HENRI II. À LA COUR D'ANGLETERRE.

La correspondance fournie par les Ambassadeurs de France pendant le règne de Marie Tudor s'étend sans interruption depuis le lendemain de la mort d'Edouard VI. jusqu'au mois de Juin 1557, époque où la guerre fut déclarée entre l'Angleterre et la France. Toutes les négociations ont été accomplies pendant ces quatre années par MESSIEURS DE NOAILLES; Antoine de Noailles d'abord, Gilles ensuite et le Protonotaire de Noailles, qui fut Evêque de Dax. Toute leur correspondance est conservée en pièces originales et en copies aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES.

* Les relations furent interrompues entre la France et l'Angleterre depuis cette époque jusqu'au temps où les négociations pour la paix furent ouvertes au mois d'Octobre 1558, mais aucun Ambassadeur français depuis FRANÇOIS DE NOAILLES ne devait voir la Cour de Londres sous le règne de Marie Tudor, cette princesse étant venue à mourir pendant le temps même que se traitaient les préliminaires de la paix à Cerpac, le 19 Novembre 1558.

† Le lieu des conférences devait d'abord être Villiers l'hospital entre Doullens et le camp, mais le 12 Octobre, le lieu désigné fut l'Abbaye de Cercamp, près Arras.

RÈGNE D'ÉLISABETH.

ÉTAT DES DÉPÊCHES ET DOCUMENTS DES AMBASSADEURS DE FRANCE SUCCESSIVEMENT ACCRÉDITÉS PAR LES ROIS HENRI II, FRANÇOIS II, CHARLES IX, HENRI III, ET HENRI IV, À LA COUR D'ANGLETERRE (19 Novembre 1558—29 Mars 1603).

Neuf Ambassadeurs ordinaires et un grand nombre d'autres personnalités accréditées auprès de la Reine Élisabeth, soit en qualité d'Ambassadeurs extraordinaires soit comme chargés d'une mission particulière, forment le personnel diplomatique de France pendant ce règne de quarante-cinq années. Nous avons encore de regrettables lacunes à constater dans le cours des correspondances que nous avons eu mission de rechercher. Après la paix conclue en Août 1550 à Chastellu-Cambresis, Messieurs DE MONTMORENCY et DE VILLEVILLE furent envoyés Ambassadeurs extraordinaires pour recevoir le serment de la Reine et les ratifications du traité, et GILLES DE NOAILLES, ABBÉ DE L'ISLE, celui-même qui avait rempli l'intérim de l'Ambassade de France à Londres sous le règne précédent, après le départ d'Antoine son frère et en attendant l'arrivée de l'Evêque d'Acqs son autre frère, fut déclaré Ambassadeur résident. Ce fut donc lui qui, en réalité, renoua les relations entre les deux Cours. Nous avons ses Dépêches. MICHEL DE SEVERE, Chevalier de Malte et Gentilhomme de la Chambre, lui succéda : sa résidence fut de deux années. Sa correspondance est inconnue. PAUL DE FOIX vint ensuite et résida quatre années, il existe de lui de fort curieuses Dépêches, mais elles ne forment pas une correspondance suivie et complète, et il en est malheureusement de même pour la correspondance de son successeur JACQUES BOCHETEL, SR. DE LA FOREST, Chevalier de l'ordre et maître d'hôtel du Roi, lequel demeura à Londres de 1566 à 1568, et fut remplacé par Messire BERTRAND DE SALIGNAC DE LA MOTHE-FÉNÉLON dont l'abondante et intéressante correspondance a été publiée en sept volumes in-8° par les soins de M. A. Telleut sur les manuscrits conservés aux ARCHIVES NATIONALES. Cet Ambassadeur, qui resta en fonctions à Londres pendant sept années, eut pour successeur un personnage qui occupa cette Ambassade pendant dix ans, MICHEL DE CASTELNAU, SR. DE MAUVISSIÈRE, Chevalier de l'ordre, Capitaine de cinquante hommes d'armes et Gouverneur de Saint-Dizier, de qui la correspondance n'existe en divers dépôts que par parties. Il nous a été impossible de la former en son complet malgré nos recherches les plus diverses, et nos efforts ont été plus infructueux encore, s'il se peut dire, pour rencontrer la suite des Dépêches de GUILLAUME DE L'AUBESPINE, BARON DE CHASTAUNEUF, arrivé Ambassadeur ordinaire à Londres en 1586 et parti en 1589, remplacé par JEAN DE LA FIN, SR. DE BEAUVOIR DE LA NOCLE, qui fut le premier Ambassadeur accrédité par Henri IV auprès de la Reine Élisabeth. Pendant son Ambassade et après qu'il fut rappelé, jusqu'à l'année 1598, les négociations très actives entre les deux Cours furent remplies par divers personnages envoyés extraordinairement tels que M. DE TURENNE, NICOLAS DE HARLAY, SR. DE SANCY, le SR. DE LOMÈNE, Messieurs DE BOUILLON et DE SANCY encore et Messire HURAUT, SR. DE MAÏSSE. Nous n'avons rien ou à peu près du SR. DE BEAUVOIR DE LA NOCLE, mais il existe soit des Dépêches soit des relations de la négociation des autres seigneurs.

De 1598 à 1601, la charge fut remplie par Messire THUMERY, SR. DE BOISSIZE, à qui succéda CHRISTOPHE DE HARLAY, COMTE DE BEAUMONT, lequel était à la Cour d'Angleterre au moment de la mort de la Reine. Nous avons la correspondance complète de l'un et l'autre de ces Ambassadeurs.

Nota.—Le tome septième (supplément à la correspondance diplomatique de BERTRAND DE SALIGNAC FÉNÉLON), publié en 1840 par A. TRULET, contient les lettres écrites de la Cour de France à l'Ambassadeur. La première est du 14 Mars 1569, la dernière du 24 Mars 1575. Il faut voir aussi le tome troisième des Mémoires de MICHEL DE CASTELNAU, Sr. de Mauvissière. Additions aux Mémoires publiées à Bruxelles en 1731 par LE LABOUREUR, lesquelles contiennent aussi les lettres de la Cour à BERTRAND DE SALIGNAC pour les années 1573 (Décembre) à 21 Mai 1575, et diverses pièces importantes telles que le "Mémoire baillé à M. de la Chastre allant en Angleterre" (3 Mars 1575) et l'ampliation du dit Mémoire.

1570) et l'adaptation du dit Mémoire.

* Michel de Castelnau, Sr. de Mauviissière, successeur de B. Salignac de la Mothe Fénélon à l'Ambassade d'Angleterre, arriva ce jour.

† Audience de congé de M. de la Mothe Fénélon. Il avait adressé 468 Dépêches.

§ MICHEL DE CASTELNAU, SR. DE MAUVISSIÈRE, ne resta pas moins de dix années Ambassadeur pour le Roi en Angleterre. Il était déjà fort bien connu de la Reine Elizabeth vers laquelle il avait été envoyé diverses fois en mission particulière, notamment en 1565, du temps de l'Ambassade de M. de Foix. Il a laissé des Mémoires qui, publiés plusieurs fois, ont rendu son nom justement célèbre. Il avait épousé une Bochetel, fille d'un de ces Bochetel si fort versés dans les négociations de France du temps des Valois. Il eut deux filles nées en Angleterre, dont la seconde eut pour marraine la Reine Elizabeth. Le Sr. le Laboureur a publié avec un grand luxe de recherches une édition in-8° des Mémoires de cet Ambassadeur, et on trouvera dans le tome troisième un nombre considérable de Lettres de la Cour de France pour les années de l'Ambassade 1575 (Juin), 1576, 1577 et 1578 (Août). Le Sr. DE MAUVISSIÈRE arriva à la Cour de Londres le 22 Août, et fut présenté à la Reine au château de Woodstock dans les premiers jours de Septembre. Les registres MS. de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE, Nos. 15,971 et 15,972, contiennent diverses lettres de lui avec ses instructions, et la première lettre après son arrivée à Londres, adressée à M. de Morvilliers; mais nous avons à déplorer la perte de sa correspondance ordinaire avec la Cour pour les années 1576, 1576, 1577 et 1578 jusqu'au mois de Juillet. Les minutes de ses Dépêches conservées dans le MS. No. 15,973 ne commencent qu'à la 208ème Dépêche de son Ambassade (4 Juillet 1578), et s'arrêtent soudainement à la 324ème Dépêche (20 Juin 1581). Or comme il quitta Londres en Septembre 1585, ce sont donc les Dépêches de près de sept années de son Ambassade qui nous manquent. Voyez une très intéressante notice publiée en 1856 par M. GUSTAVE HUBAT, "Michel de Castelnau, Ambassadeur en Angleterre" (1575-1585), (St. Cloud: Imp. Belin), et l'étude historique sur les relations de la France et de l'Ecosse dans la seconde moitié du XVI^e siècle, "Marie Stuart et Catherine de Médicis", publiée par le savant M. A. CHÉREUL (Paris, 1858).

* Il faut placer à cette date l'indication de la mission particulière donnée alors à M. DE RAMBOUILLET: "Instructions au Sr. de Rambouillet, Chevalier des ordres du Roy, Conseiller en son Conseil privé et Capitaine de ses Gardes." Paris, 23 Juillet 1578. BIB. NAT., Fonds Français, MS. 17,932.

* Le Roi rapelle par cette lettre le Sr. de Mauvissiere de son Ambassade en Angleterre, et il nomme à lui succéder le Sr. de Chateauneuf de l'Aubespine, son proche parent.

† Le Roi accorde au Sr. de Mauvissiere de demeurer en Angleterre jusqu'au mois d'Avril 1585.

‡ Nous ne connaissons que très peu de Dépêches de Messire GUILLAUME DE L'AUBESPINE
DE CHASTAUNEUF pendant les quatre années de son Ambassade en Angleterre (1585-1589).
Il en est une du 14 Janvier 1587 à la Reine mère du Roi (BIB. NAT., MS. fr. 2812), mais le
MS. 6,613 (fonds français, idem) renferme plusieurs documents écrits de la main de cet Amba-sadeur : " Discours de M. DE CHASTAUNEUF, Ambassadeur en Angleterre, touchant les desmeles . . . " fol. 70 à 84 (reproduit par le Prince Labanoff dans le recueil des Lettres de Marie Stuart). Minute de la depesche au Roy du 13 Mars 1587, fol. 94. Fragment, fol. 96, et autres feuillets sur " l'état général de l'Europe " à cette époque.

§ Le MS. 3,306 (fol. 4) contient une lettre du Roi à cet Ambassadeur, qui est du 18 Decembre 1585.

Le savant M. CHÉRUÉL a publié un assez grand nombre de lettres de M. DE CHASTAUNEUF parmi les pièces justificatives de son ouvrage " Marie Stuart et Catherine de Médicis " (Paris : Hachette, 1888). Ce sont des lettres adressées de Londres à M. d'Esneval en 1586.

Enfin ALEXANDRE TEULET a consacré une partie du Tome IV. des " Relations politiques de la France et de l'Espagne avec l'Ecosse " aux souvenirs de l'Ambassade de L'AUBESPINE DE

§ Pour l'Ambassade ou plutôt la mission spéciale de POMPONE DE BELLIEVE auprès de la Reine Elizabeth, Ambassade ou mission qui figure dans tous les ouvrages consacrés à l'histoire de Marie Stuart, et dont les documents seraient indiqués ici s'ils se composaient principalement de correspondances, voir BIB. NAT., MS. No. 3,466 :

* Cette lettre annonce à M. de Boissize l'envoi du Maréchal de Biron en Angleterre.

† Cette Dépêche concerne l'Ambassade extraordinaire de M. DE BIRON, Pair et Maréchal de France. Voir ses Instructions, BIB. NAT., MS. No. 3,498. Il arriva le 14 Septembre à Londres, eut audience de la Reine le 20 et partit le 28, après avoir été magnifiquement traité.

‡ CHRISTOPHE DE HARLAY, COMTE DE BEAUMONT, Conseiller d'État, Gouverneur de la ville et duché d'Orléans, Bailli du Palais, fils unique du Premier Président Achille de Harlay et de Catherine de Thou, fille du Premier Président de Thou. Envoyé d'abord adjoint à M. DE BOISSIZE près les commissaires nommés pour une conférence de commerce maritime, puis Ambassadeur après le rappel de M. de Boissize, 11 Décembre 1601. Après la mort de la Reine ÉLIZABETH (Mars 1603) il fut accrédité de nouveau auprès de JACQUES PREMIER, et fut rappelé en Octobre 1605. Il mourut en 1615. Ses Dépêches au Roi et au Secrétaire d'État et les lettres du Roi et du Secrétaire d'État à lui adressées ne forment pas moins de 15 volumes de copies faites au XVII^e siècle, qui sont conservées à la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE. Nous avons indiqué ici seulement les Dépêches de l'Ambassadeur; quant aux Lettres du Roi et du Secrétaire d'État, on peut estimer qu'il s'en trouve à peu près autant qu'il y a eu de Dépêches.

RÈGNE DE JACQUES PREMIER.

ÉTATS DES DÉPÊCHES ET DOCUMENTS DES AMBASSADEURS ET CHARGÉS D'AFFAIRES DE FRANCE ACCRÉDITÉS PAR LES ROIS HENRI IV. ET LOUIS XIII. À LA COUR D'ANGLETERRE.

Six Ambassadeurs ordinaires ont successivement traité les négociations de la Cour de France avec la Cour d'Angleterre pendant les vingt-sept années du règne de Jacques Premier. Trois chargés d'affaires ont fait le service intérimaire en divers temps et neuf Ambassadeurs furent envoyés en mission extraordinaire en des circonstances diverses. Les correspondances des uns et des autres se retrouvent à peu près intégralement, soit en copies anciennes, soit en originaux, dans les différents dépôts de manuscrits historiques, tels que la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE et les ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES. Les Ambassadeurs ordinaires furent Christophe de Harlay, Comte de BEAUMONT; Antoine le Febvre, Sr. de LA BODERIE, Conseiller du Roi; Samuel Spifame, Sr. de BUISSEAUX, Conseiller au Parlement; Gaspard Dauvet, Sr. DESMARETS, Gouverneur de Beauvais; Tanneguy le Veneur, Comte de TILLIÈRES; et Antoine Coiffier Euzé, Marquis d'EFFIAT. Les Chargés d'Affaires furent le Sr. DUJARDIN, le Sr. de SEVE, le Sr. LESCLERC et le Sr. DUMOULIN. Les Ambassades extraordinaires furent accomplies par Charles Cauchon de Maupas, Baron du TOUR; Maximilien de Béthune, Marquis de ROSNY; Louis de l'Hospital, Marquis de VITRY; le Baron du TOUR (pour la seconde fois); Jean de Beaumanoir, Maréchal de LAVARDIN; Henri Vicomte de Turenne, Duc de BOUILLON; le Marquis de Tresnel, Sr. des URSINS; le Maréchal de CADENET; et Henri Auguste de Lomenie, Sr. de LA VILLE AUX CLERCS.

* M. DE BEAUMONT fut accrédité Ambassadeur auprès du successeur au trône d'Élisabeth par lettres de créance du Roi Henri IV., datées de Sézanne le 13 Avril 1603.

Il faut voir aussi pour les premiers jours de l'avènement de Jacques VI., Roi d'Écosse, au trône d'Angleterre, sous le nom de Jacques Premier, quelques Dépêches du Baron du TOUR, qui eut charge d'accompagner le nouveau Roi pendant son voyage d'Édimbourg à Londres, où il assista à son entrée. Ses instructions, BIB. NAT., MS. fr. 4,755. Ses Dépêches, MS. fr. 15,973 (ancien Harlay, 222).

† L'Ambassade extraordinaire de Maximilien de Béthune, Marquis de ROSNY, est à cette date. Il y a trois Dépêches de lui dans ce même volume des Dépêches de M. de BEAUMONT, No. 3,502, fol. 117, 133 et 163.

* Après que M. DE BEAUMONT eut pris congé de la Cour d'Angleterre, le SR. DUJARDIN, son secrétaire, fut chargé du soin des affaires du Roi, en attendant la venue d'un autre Ambassadeur. Voir BIB. NAT., MS. fr. 15,972. Le nouvel Ambassadeur fut ANTOINE LE FEBVRE, SR. DE LA BODERIE.

† Une grande partie des Dépêches originales d'ANTOINE LE FEBVRE, SR. DE LA BODERIE, existe à la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE dans les manuscrits Nos. 15,984 et 15,985 du Fonds Français, mais pour consulter la correspondance en son complet, il faut se porter aussi vers les copies du Fonds Brienne, MS. Nos. 42, 43 et 44. Presque toute sa correspondance a, du reste, été publiée en 1750 sous le titre suivant : "Ambassades de MONSIEUR DE LA BODERIE en Angleterre sous le règne d'HENRI IV. et la minorité de LOUIS XIII., depuis les années 1606 jusqu'en 1611. (Sans nom de lieu) 1750. Cinq volumes petit in-8°. Antérieurement à cette date, on avait publié en Hollande : "Lettres de Henri IV., Roi de France, et de Messieurs de Villeroy et de Puyseuix à M. Antoine le Febvre de la Boderie, Ambassadeur de France en Angleterre." (Amsterdam : 1733. 2 volumes.) Mais les erreurs y sont considérables. Il faut consulter sur les personnes de la famille des LA BODERIE une très intéressante notice publiée à Paris en 1857 par le Comte HECTOR DE LA FERRIÈRE-PERCY, sous le titre de : Les La Boderie : Étude sur une famille normande. (Paris : Aubry, éditeur.)

Nota.—M. de la Boderie prit congé du Roi d'Angleterre le Dimanche qui suivit le 14 Juillet. Ce congé lui avait été accordé par lettres du Secrétaire d'État VILLEROY en date de Fontainebleau le 22 Mai. "Cependant," lui disait M. de Villeroy, "vous laisserez par de là votre secrétaire jusqu'à l'arrivée de l'Ambassadeur pour nous tenir à l'accoustumée toujours adverty des occurrences qui surviendront." Mais il advint que aucun autre Ambassadeur ne fut nommé pour le reste de l'année, et que ce fut encore M. DE LA BODERIE qui revint l'année suivante avec de nouvelles instructions, et cette fois, en qualité d'Ambassadeur extraordinaire. Le Sr. DENESTAU, secrétaire de M. DE LA BODERIE, fut donc chargé de la correspondance pour les six derniers mois de l'année 1608, et l'état de ses Dépêches est le suivant :*

* Les Dépêches du Secrétaire de l'Ambassadeur n'ont pas été imprimées dans le recueil de "l'Ambassade de M. de la Boderie," publié en 1750.

† Ce fut par le courrier du 20 Mai 1610 (Paris) que l'Ambassadeur apprit la mort d'HENRI IV. Les lettres sont du Roi (Louis XIII.), de la Reine sa mère et de M. de Villeroy. Ce Secrétaire d'État disait entr'autres choses à M. de la Boderie : "Quand vous écrirez au Roy et à la dile Dame Reine sa mère, ne comprenez en celles du Roy que les choses que vous jugerez devoir ou pouvoir être eues de tous : remplissez celles de la Reine de ce qui doit estre tenu secret . . ."

* Ce fut à cette époque que M. de la Boderie reçut avis de l'envoi prochain d'un Ambassadeur extraordinaire (LE MARÉCHAL DE LAVARDIN) et du choix de son successeur en l'Ambassade ordinaire (M. DE BUISSEAU). Le choix s'était d'abord porté sur "M. de Vallencey," mais la Reine ne s'y voulut arrêter.

† M. de Puyseulx annonce ainsi l'Ambassadeur extraordinaire le Maréchal de Lavardin: Nous luy conseillons de mener une troupe leste, discrète et en bon ordre sans se charger comme plusieurs ont fait de tous venants afin de rendre l'Ambassade plus relevée et honorable. M. de Vitry partira devant luy pour attraper ce Roy à la chasse duquel il se promet d'estre bien veu et reçu.

‡ Cette Dépêche est la dernière de M. de la Boderie qui se voit imprimée dans le recueil de son Ambassade.

§ Sur l'arrivée du MARÉCHAL DE LAVARDIN comme Ambassadeur extraordinaire. Voir ses Instructions, BIB. NAT., M.S. fr. No. 4,112.

|| C'est une lettre de compliment sur l'Ambassade du MARÉCHAL DE LAVARDIN qui doit quitter Londres le 14 Février avec M. de la Boderie.

¶ SAMUEL SPIFAME, SR. DE BUISSEAU (ou de Buisseau) en Brie, Conseiller au Parlement depuis le 27 Mai 1587, puis reçu Maître des Requêtes le 29 Juillet 1597; Conseiller d'État. Fils de Jean Spifame III., Sr. de Bisseaux, Conseiller au Parlement en 1549, Doyen de la Grand Chambre et Conseiller d'État, et de Marguerite de Lyon, sœur du Premier Président de la Cour des monnaies. Il mourut en 1632. Sa famille était originaire de Lucques et s'était établie à Paris en 1550.

Cet Ambassadeur signe ses Dépêches de son nom de famille "SPIFAME," mais lorsqu'on parle de lui on qu'on lui écrit, on le désigne toujours sous le nom de "M. de Bisseaux" ou de "Buisseau." Il arriva à Londres le 17 Février 1611 avec le SR. DE SEVE, son secrétaire. Ses Dépêches sont conservées en original au département des manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE. Un très grand nombre d'entr'elles sont malheureusement remplies de noms et de mots de convention qui forment ce qu'on appelait alors un jargon dont l'explication manque fort souvent. Il fut rappelé de son Ambassade au mois de Janvier de l'année 1615. Sa résidence à Londres fut donc de quatre ans exactement.

* Dépêche placée à tort dans le MS. No. 15,968, page 96.

† Il y en a encore trois lettres de l'Ambassadeur écrites de Londres aux mêmes dates que celles du Sr. de Sève pour le mois de Janvier 7, 11, 16.

‡ GASPARD DAUVET, SR. DES MARETS (et DESMARET, l'écriture des noms était alors fort variable), Gouverneur de Beauvais, Maître d'hôtel du Roi, Chevalier des ordres en 1619, marié à Isabelle Brulart, fille de Nicolas Brulart de Sillery, Chancelier de France, le 30 Juillet 1601.

* Il est malheureusement à noter qu'un grand nombre de Dépêches de l'Ambassadeur manquent à l'appel du chercheur pour cette année 1816, particulièrement depuis le 21 Mars jusqu'à la fin de Décembre. On peut expliquer ainsi ces lacunes. Les papiers conservés ici sont ceux qui étaient à M. de PUYZIEUX, Chargé des Affaires étrangères. Or la commission de Secrétaire d'Etat lui fut retirée cette même année, 9 Août 1816, pour être donnée à M. MANGOT.

† La suscription est "à Monsieur l'Evêque de Lusson, Conseiller du Roy en son Conseil d'Etat et Secrétaire de ses Commandements." ARMAND JEAN DU PLESSIS (DE RICHELIEU) avait reçu sa commission de Secrétaire d'Etat le 30 Novembre 1816. Il remplaça, peu de mois après, M. MANGOT dans les négociations et affaires étrangères.

‡ Lettre minutée par Richelieu pour le Roi. Il annonce à l'Ambassadeur l'envoi de M. du Tour pour une mission particulière. "Au reste j'envoie le Sr. Baron du Tour aux quartiers ou vous estes pour voir et conférer avec vous dou peut proceder cette alteration qui semble estre en la volonte du Roy mon frere et tascher de delivrer son esprit en chassant les mauvaises impressions qu'on luy a artificeusement donnees. Pour cet effect j'o luy charg de particulieres instructions

§ M. DE RICHELIEU écrit à l'Ambassadeur: "Je travaille autant qu'il m'est possible au reglement necessaire pour faire tenir en diligence tant les Dépêches de S. M. que celles qui concernent ses affaires. Ayant bien cognu depuis que je suis en ma charge combien la longueur dont on use à porter les paquets cause de retardement à son service."

* Le Marquis DE TRESNEL signait "Des Ursins." C'est par erreur que le manuscrit de la BIB. NAT., No. 4,112, qui contient la copie de ses Instructions, les marque à l'année 1609 au lieu de 1619.

† TANNÉGUY LE VENEUR, COMTE DE TILLIÈRES, fils de Jacques le Veneur, Baron de Carouges, Bailly et Gouverneur de Rouen. Marié le 21 Août 1608 à Catherine de Bassompierre, fille du Grand Maître de Lorraine. Il avait été annoncé au Roi de la Grande Bretagne par le Marquis de Tresnel comme Ambassadeur ordinaire. Il arriva à Douvres le 23 Août et résida jusqu'au mois de Juin 1624. Il mourut à Paris en Septembre 1652. Ses Mémoires ont été publiés en un volume in-12 en 1862 par M. C. HIPPEAU, sous ce titre: "Mémoires inédits sur la Cour de Charles Premier et son mariage avec Henriette de France." Voyez aussi le MS. de BIB. MAZARINE, No. 2,858. Son secrétaire fut le SE. DUMOLIN (et Dumoulin), fort versé ensuite dans les affaires d'Angleterre.

* Médecin français attaché à la personne du Roi d'Angleterre.

* L'Ambassadeur a reçu ses lettres permission de congé. Il partit le Lundi après le 2 Août et revint à Londres le 12 Octobre.

† A cet endroit (page 597) se trouve intercalé, hors date, un mémoire de la main du Sr. de Fontenay, Ambassadeur en Angleterre, au Cardinal de Richelieu, touchant les inclinations de la Reine d'Angleterre, touchant la Reine Mère, M. de Chateaufort, Jars et adversion contre le Cardinal.

‡ La direction des négociations et des affaires étrangères fut retirée à M. DE PUYSEUX le 5 Février 1624, en même temps que M. le Chancelier de Sillery fut éloigné des autres affaires du Royaume. HENRY AUGUSTE DE LOMÉNIE, SR. DE LA VILLE AUX CLERCS, Secrétaire d'État, fut chargé des affaires étrangères. Les Dépêches d'Angleterre des 9 et 18 Janvier que M. de Tillières avait adressées à M. de Puyseux furent mises en ses mains le 6 Février. "Neantmoins," écrit-il ce jour à M. de Tillières, "j'adjousteray que Sa Majesté desire que bien ponctuellement vous luy mandiez par la première des vostres l'état des affaires du pays ou vous estes et tant celles qui le regardent que généralement toutes les autres qui s'y traittent, ce qui est tres important de scavoir pour en former des resolutions sur ce qui peut venir de leur part et en mille autres rencontres."

RÈGNE DE CHARLES PREMIER.

ÉTATS DES DÉPÊCHES ET DOCUMENTS DES AMBASSADEURS ET CHARGÉS D'AFFAIRES DE FRANCE ACCRÉDITÉS PAR LES ROIS LOUIS XIII. ET LOUIS XIV. À LA COUR D'ANGLETERRE.

Le Marquis D'EFFIAT, le Marquis DE BLAINVILLE, M. DE FONTENAY-MAREUIL, le Marquis DE POIGNY, le Marquis DE SENNETERRE, le Président DE BELLÈVRE, le Marquis de la FERTÉ-IMBAULT et M. DE SABRAN furent les Ambassadeurs ordinaires qui ont résidé en divers temps à la Cour d'Angleterre pendant le règne de Charles I. Deux correspondances seules ne sont pas complètes : ce sont celles de M. de Fontenay-Mareuil et de M. de Poigny, l'une de Juin 1630 à Mai 1633, l'autre de Juillet 1634 à Décembre 1636. Mais il est très à croire qu'on les retrouvera un jour sinon dans les dépôts de la Bibliothèque Nationale et des Archives des Affaires Étrangères, du moins dans quelques archives de famille.

Les Chargés d'Affaires enfin et les Envoyés en mission particulière furent le Sr. EVÊQUE DE MENDE (Duplessis), le Sr. BAUTRU, le Sr. DE LA BARRE, le Sr. BOUTARD, le Sr. DE BAIGNEAUX, le Sr. DE MONTEBEUL, le Comte D'HARCOURT le Sr. DE GRÉCY, le Sr. DE BUREA, le Sr. DUMOLIN, le Sr. DE CHELLIEU, le Sr. DE GRIGNON, qui était un Bellèvre, et le Sr. DE GRAYMOND. Les lettres des uns et des autres existent, soit aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES, soit au département des manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE.

Il est à noter que pendant ce règne les relations diplomatiques entre les deux Cours furent interrompues pendant deux années, par suite de l'état de guerre, depuis le mois de Juillet 1627 jusqu'au mois de Mai 1629.

* M. D'HERBAULT, Conseiller et nouveau "Secrétaire d'Etat." Par le règlement du 11 Mars 1626, toutes les affaires concernant les pays étrangers furent mises en une seule main. M. D'HERBAULT (PHELYPEAUX) eut donc un département d'affaires qui comprenait tous les pays étrangers et les affaires générales des Huguenots, mais en réalité M. LE CARDINAL était le grand directeur de toutes choses. Voyez les papiers de M. D'HERBAULT de 1624 à 1627 aux ARCHIVES NATIONALES, K bis, Nos. 1,339 à 1,369.

† M. DE BLAINVILLE avait été rappelé de son Ambassade à la fin de Février. Il prit congé le 29 Avril. M. DUPLESSIS, Evêque de Mande, fut chargé de la correspondance jusqu'à la fin d'Août.

* Sur le départ du Marquis de Fontenay, qui retourne en France.

† Il est à croire qu'il n'y eut personne en Angleterre pour le service ordinaire de la correspondance depuis le mois de Mai 1633 jusqu'au mois de Novembre. M. le Cardinal employait à Paris un M. Forster auquel il donnait une pension de 2,000 livres de France pour rendre compte d'après les lettres et nouvelles qui arrivaient de Londres. Voir aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES les volumes dits du "Fonds de France" 1633, et ensu.

‡ On lit dans cette instruction: "Le Sr. de Poigny partira avec la plus grande diligence qu'il pourra pour se rendre à Londres ou est la demeure ordinaire des Roys d'Angleterre afin de reprendre la suite des affaires qui a esté interrompue depuis que le Sr. de Fontenay son predecesseur en cette charge a eu congé de s'en revenir après avoir servi avec autant d'honneur de fidelité et d'adresse qu'il se puisse desirer."

§ Le Marquis DE POIGNY était Jacques d'Angennes, petit-fils du Seigneur de Rambouillet, Gentilhomme de la chambre des Rois François I et Henri II, et fils de Jean d'Angennes, Seigneur de Poigny, Ambassadeur pour le Roi Henri III au Pape. Ainsi que nous l'avons dit, sa correspondance, comme celle de son prédécesseur M. de Fontenay, ne se trouve conservée que fort incomplètement.

§ Il avait déjà écrit de Boulogne et de Douvre à M. Bouthillier. Le Sr. du Perron, Aumônier de la Reine d'Angleterre, éat revenu presque dans le même temps à Londres. Lettre du Roi très chrétien au Roi d'Angleterre à son sujet (Juin 1634), et première lettre de DU PERRON (de Londres, 10 Juillet). Pages 315, 320.

* Le SR. DE MONTEUREUL avait un peu fait à Rome son école d'agent. Il fut accueilli après diverses démarches par M. de Bellière, qui le prit pour secrétaire particulier d'abord et lui confia ensuite tout le soin des informations et de la correspondance, après qu'il eut quitté Londres au mois de Février 1640. Ses lettres bien qu'un peu confuses sont fort curieuses et indispensables même à connaître pour suivre le cours des affaires concernant la France et l'Angleterre en 1640 et en 1641, jusqu'au moment où arriva l'Ambassadeur nouvellement accrédité, M. DE LA FRETÉ-IMBAUT, lequel arriva à Londres au mois de Juillet 1641.

C'est à la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE et non aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES qu'il faut chercher la correspondance du SR. DE MONTEUREUL, du moins pour cette année 1640, car le volume de la série Angleterre coté (48) dans ces Archives ne contient que six lettres de cet agent à M. de Chavigny, tandis que le manuscrit fr. No. 15,995 dont nous donnons le titre ci-dessus contient à la fois la correspondance adressée à l'Ambassadeur absent et au Secrétaire d'État qui avait en main les affaires étrangères.

1646.	Londres, 4 Juillet.	M. de Cheylieu au Cardinal Mazarin.	Folio 378.
	2 Août.	† au Cardinal Mazarin.	" 464.

* M. DE SABRAN avait quitté Londres le 7 Juillet pour se rendre à Douvres d'où il partit six jours après pour Calais, où il trouva M. DE BELLIEVRE, Ambassadeur du Roi. Il n'avait pas pris officiellement congé du Parlement.

† M. de Cheylieu, Secrétaire de M. de Sabran, avait reçu l'ordre du Cardinal Mazarin de participer continuellement à M. de Bellièvre, nouvel Ambassadeur en Angleterre, ce qu'il pourrait découvrir des affaires et de ne plus écrire pendant le séjour à Londres de M. de Bellièvre, jusqu'à son départ pour l'Écosse.

No. 8.—Lists of Despatches of Ambassadors from France—continued.

GOUVERNEMENT PARLEMENTAIRE.

Janvier 1640—Avril 1653.

Pendant cette période fort tourmentée, il est naturel que la correspondance qui servait à instruire le cabinet de France des affaires d'Angleterre ait été non seulement ralentie mais même interrompue diverses fois.

Les Dépêches de M. de Grignon (P. de Bellièvre) du 3 Février avaient informé M. le Cardinal Mazarin et le Secrétaire d'Etat des Affaires Étrangères, le Comte de Brienne, de la sentence prononcée contre le Roi Charles I. et de la forme nouvelle donnée au Gouvernement d'Angleterre. M. DE GRIGNON fut rappelé presque aussitôt par le Cardinal et quitta l'Angleterre à la fin d'Avril. Son secrétaire, le Sr. DE CROULLE, fut chargé de suivre le service des informations et sa correspondance s'étend jusqu'au 9 Janvier de l'année 1651.

Toute l'année 1651 se passa sans négociations pratiquées ni ouvertures faites, même sous formes secrètes : mais entre le mois de Janvier et le mois de Décembre 1652, on voit intervenir des négociateurs plutôt complaisants qu'accrédités et, par conséquent, apparaître des documents qui laissent prévoir une reprise inévitable des relations entre les deux nations. Les Sieurs Gentillot et Salomon de Verlade sont les instruments secrets du travail politique de M. le Cardinal Mazarin qui en met au jour le résultat par la déclaration du choix d'un Ambassadeur en Angleterre dans la personne de M. DE BORDEAUX, "Conseiller du Roy en son Conseil d'Etat, Maître des Requêtes ordinaires de Sa Majesté, Intendant de justice, police et finances en la province de "Picardie." Du 2 Décembre 1652 jusqu'au 20 Avril 1653, époque de la déclaration du Protectorat, M. DE BORDEAUX fut donc chargé de représenter le Royaume auprès de messieurs du Parlement d'Angleterre, et sa curieuse correspondance se trouve intégralement conservée aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES.

* ANTOINE DE BORDEAUX, Chevalier, Seigneur de Genitoy de Neufville et des Bresignolles, Président au Grand Conseil, où il avait été reçu le 28 Mars 1642. Originaire de la baronnie de Bordeaux au pays de Caux. Des "Mémoires" ont paru sous son nom en 1758, mais ils sont l'ouvrage apocryphe de Gatiien Sandras de Courtill, "Mémoires de M. de Bordeaux, par M.G.D.C." (Amsterdam. 4 volumes in-12. 1758.) L'illustre M. GUTZOT s'est considérablement et fort heureusement servi de l'importante et très curieuse correspondance de cet Ambassadeur pour son ouvrage "Histoire de la République d'Angleterre et de Cromwell" (3 volumes. Paris : Didier) et il a publié en Appendice une série de documents historiques parmi lesquels figurent en bon nombre d'intéressans fragments des Dépêches de M. DE BORDEAUX adressées au CARDINAL MAZARIN et au COMTE DE BRIENNE.

† Conseiller du Roy en ses Conseils et Surintendant de ses Finances.

GOUVERNEMENT D'OLIVIER CROMWELL ET PROTECTORAT.

Avril—Décembre 1653. Décembre 1653—Août 1658. Septembre 1658—
Mai 1660.

Lorsque Cromwell dispersa l'assemblée historiquement appelée "Le Long Parlement," M. DE BORDEAUX était à Londres depuis trois mois déjà Ambassadeur du Roi auprès de la République et Parlement d'Angleterre. Il fut alors accrédité de nouveau, et très personnellement, auprès du Général pour l'être ensuite avec une sorte de solennité officielle auprès de "Monsieur le Protecteur." Une mission particulière fut donnée par le Cardinal Mazarin à M. DE BAAS, chargé de négocier conjointement à M. de Bordeaux, mais cette mission fut promptement rompue sur la demande et les observations du Protecteur, et M. DE BORDEAUX demeura seul auprès de Cromwell. On peut dire que cet Ambassadeur ne fit qu'un avec le Protectorat d'Angleterre depuis le jour de son triomphe jusqu'au jour de sa chute, car la seule correspondance diplomatique qui fut tenue à Londres pour la France, non seulement sous le premier Protecteur mais encore sous le second, le fut par M. de Bordeaux. Ces Dépêches et les pièces relatives à ses négociations ne comprennent pas moins de douze volumes manuscrits fort considérables qui sont conservés aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES. LA BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE possède trois volumes manuscrits qui sont copies de Dépêches uniformément adressées à M. de Brienne, Secrétaire d'État, pendant les quatre premières années de la résidence de M. DE BORDEAUX à Londres (1653—1656).

ANNÉE 1653 (Mai—Décembre).

Les Dépêches de M. DE BORDEAUX à M. de Brienne pour les six mois de l'année 1660 que dura encore son Ambassade en Angleterre, se trouvent aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES, volume No. 74. La dernière Dépêche est du 6 Juillet, en date même du jour où l'Ambassadeur quitta Londres pour retourner en France, après avoir accompli une Ambassade de huit années consécutives, sauf les deux derniers mois de 1655 et les trois premiers de 1656, qu'il avait passés à Paris, après avoir conclu le traité d'alliance avec le Protecteur. Il était naturel que M. de Bordeaux, après avoir servi la politique de M. le Cardinal auprès des deux Cromwell, ne fût point agréable aux person-nages de la Restauration de la Maison de Stuart et surtout à la per-sonne même du Roi Charles II. Aussi ne fût-il point agréé par le nouveau Roi et se trouva-t-il dans la condition de devoir quitter l'Angle-terre sans avoir eu l'audience du Roi nouvellement proclamé. Ses Dépêches au Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères, COMTE DE BRIENNE, sont ainsi réparties :

Janvier, 1, 5, 8, 12, 15, 19, 23, 26.

Février, 2, 9, 17, 19, 22, 22, 26.

RÈGNE DE CHARLES II.

(Mai 1660—Février 1685.)

Toutes les correspondances des Ambassadeurs de France accrédités en Angleterre pendant ce règne, qui dura vingt-cinq années, ont été soigneusement conservées et se trouvent toutes aux ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES. Les Ambassadeurs ordinaires furent le COMTE D'ESTRADES, Conseiller du Roi en ses Conseils, Lieutenant-général en ses armées; le COMTE DE COMINGES, Conseiller du Roi en son Conseil d'État, Chevalier des ordres et Capitaine des Gardes de la Reine Mère; CHARLES COLBERT DE CROISSY, Conseiller ordinaire du Roi en tous ses Conseils; le MARQUIS DE RUVIGNY, Lieutenant-général, et que Mazarin avait désigné plusieurs années avant pour être député général des églises protestantes; M. COURTIN DE VILLIERS, Conseiller ordinaire du Roi en son Conseil d'État; et M. DE BARILLON, Conseiller ordinaire au même Conseil, l'un et l'autre du Parlement de Paris.

Les Ambassadeurs accrédités extraordinairement furent le COMTE DE SOISSONS, désigné par le Cardinal Mazarin pour aller complimenter Charles II. sur le recouvrement de sa couronne; le DUC DE VERNUEIL, accrédité avec M. DE COURTIN et M. de Cominges; le MARÉCHAL DE BELLEFONDS; le DUC DE CRÉQUY; et le MARQUIS DE TILLADET. Ces Ambassades extraordinaires n'eurent point d'ailleurs de caractère politique sauf celle du Duc de Vernueil, envoyé pour négocier conjointement à M. de Courtin.

Deux seuls Secrétaires sont à citer comme ayant correspondu officiellement avec la Cour et le Ministère: ce furent les Sieurs BARTET et BATAILLER. La correspondance du premier s'étend du mois de Septembre 1660 au mois de Février 1661. Elle est fort particulière et se reconnaît aisément comme étant celle d'un confident fort domestique du Cardinal Mazarin accrédité à titre officieux plutôt que comme celle d'un secrétaire chargé d'affaires pendant l'absence de l'Ambassadeur. Une partie se trouve aux ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES, et une autre au département des manuscrits de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE NATIONALE.

* M. DE RUVIGNY était arrivé à Londres le 16 au soir, avec M. de Vaillac, Écuyer du Duc d'Anjou, pour congratuler le Roi sur le rétablissement de son trône.

† M. de Ruvigny quitta Londres le 24 Novembre avec le Comte de Soissons.

‡ M. d'Estrades était arrivé la veille.

§ Il importe de faire remarquer ici cette suscription "AU ROY," et cette autre "À M. DE LIONNE." M. le Cardinal était mort au mois de Février. Le Roi n'avait plus et ne voulait pas de "Premier Ministre." Il avait décidé de mettre la main aux affaires et avait exigé que les plus importantes Dépêches de ses Ambassadeurs lui seraient adressées. M. de Brienne fut encore Secrétaire d'Etat des Affaires Étrangères, mais plutôt pour la forme et en titre qu'en exercice. M. de Lionne, en attendant qu'il eût le titre, eut la charge et la direction de ces affaires. Voir le remarquable et intéressant ouvrage de M. J. VALFREY, sous-directeur au Département Politique du Ministère des Affaires Étrangères: "Hugues de Lionne: ses Ambassades," etc. (Paris: Didier, 1877).

Pour le règlement du Conseil, les habitudes nouvelles du Roi, la conduite et l'inclination du Prince, le plan des affaires de l'Europe à la mort du Cardinal Mazarin, voyez la correspondance de COLBERT, tome vi, page 468 et suiv.

* Les lettres du Roi et de M. de Lionne, Secrétaire d'État (jusqu'au 19 Août) adressées à l'Ambassadeur se trouvent en minutes dans le Registre No. 102. Viennent ensuite les minutes de M. de Louvois et de M. Letellier, ministres par intérim.

† M. de Louvois donne avis à l'Ambassadeur de la mort de M. de Lionne, Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères, et de l'ordre qu'il a reçu de Sa Majesté de tenir la correspondance jusqu'au retour de M. de Pomponne, déclaré Secrétaire d'État, successeur de M. de Lionne. Il était alors Ambassadeur extraordinaire en Suède. Voyez les "Mémoires du Marquis de Pomponne, Ministre et Secrétaire d'État au Département des Affaires Étrangères, publiés d'après un manuscrit inédit de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE DU CORPS LÉGISLATIF par G. MAVIDAL" (Paris, 1860.)

‡ M. de Pomponne, nouveau Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères: sa première lettre à l'Ambassadeur est du 23 Janvier (Registre No. 105, folio 16). A cette Dépêche est jointe un mémoire de l'Ambassadeur sur les dépenses en Angleterre.

* Un certain nombre de Dépêches adressées de Londres au Roi et au Secrétaire d'Etat par M. DE BARRILLON ont été publiées par SIR JOHN DALRYMPLE dans l'édition en trois volumes de son ouvrage "Memoirs of Great Britain and Ireland, etc." mais le recueil de la correspondance originale forme un ensemble si considérable qu'on peut dire que Sir John Dalrymple n'a eu la copie que d'une très petite partie.

* À la fin de Novembre 1679, le Roi retira au MARQUIS DE POMPONNE la direction des Affaires Étrangères, ayant résolu de la confier à CHARLES COLBERT, MARQUIS DE CROISSY, le même qui avait été Ambassadeur en Angleterre de 1668 à 1674 et qui, présentement, était en Bavière. En attendant son retour, ce fut à M. COLBERT son frère que le Roi ordonna de prendre soin des affaires qui étaient commises aux soins de M. DE POMPONNE.

† Revenu de Bavière où il était Ambassadeur extraordinaire lorsque le Roi l'avait désigné, deux mois auparavant, pour succéder à M. de Pomponne dans les fonctions et dignités de Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères.

RÈGNE DE JACQUES II.

Février 1685—Décembre 1688.

M. DE BARRILLON, qui avait été accrédité Ambassadeur ordinaire à la Cour d'Angleterre en 1677, et qui, par conséquent, résidait à Londres depuis bientôt huit années, fut maintenu dans ses fonctions d'Ambassadeur auprès du successeur de Charles II, et pendant les trois années de son règne, JACQUES II ne vit point d'autre Ambassadeur ordinaire de France que M. DE BARRILLON. Les autres personnages accrédités, soit en qualité d'Ambassadeurs extraordinaires, soit comme chargés d'une mission particulière, furent le MARÉCHAL DE LORGES, qui vint complimenter sur l'avènement; le MARQUIS DE TORCY, fort jeune encore, et qui vint avec le titre d'Envoyé extraordinaire; le SE. DE BONREPAUX, chargé de la mission fort délicate d'informer sur les réfugiés français en Angleterre après la révocation de l'Edit de Nantes; et le COMTE DE GRAMONT, qui vint complimenter la Cour à l'occasion de la naissance du Prince de Galles. Ainsi que nous l'avons dit déjà, les Dépêches de M. de Barrillon ont été fort répandues par la publication qu'a faite Sir John Dalrymple sous le titre de "Memoirs of Great Britain and Ireland," mais la correspondance de cet Ambassadeur, tant de fois consultée depuis, et en dernier lieu, avec le plus grand fruit, par l'historien allemand Leopold Ranke, est considérable, et la publicité donnée aux extraits qui ont été faits n'a pas été assez complète pour que, dans un répertoire des correspondances diplomatiques de France en Angleterre, aussi développé qu'est celui que nous venons de former, nous ne donnions à l'état des Dépêches de M. de Barrillon la même place qu'à l'état des correspondances les moins connues.

Nota.—Pendant les neuf années qui s'écoulèrent entre la date de l'avènement de Guillaume III au trône d'Angleterre jusqu'à la date du rétablissement de la paix par le Traité de Ryswick, les documents historiques et politiques conservés aux ARCHIVES DU MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES sont composés de pièces variées dont la nomenclature comprendrait surtout des gazettes à la main, des nouvelles de Londres, des pamphlets et autres écrits de ce genre. L'historien ou le curieux des choses du temps auront toutefois intérêt à les consulter. Aussi les indiquerons nous ici pour mémoire.

Registre No. 170. Année 1689, Janvier à Août: Pièces diverses. Nouvelles de Londres. Gazettes à la main. Journal du Parlement. Gazette de Londres. Quelques lettres du Comte d'Avaux. Quelques lettres du Lord Melfort.

Registre No. 171. Année 1689, Septembre à Décembre: Pièces du même genre que dans le volume précédent.

Registre No. 172. Années 1690-1694: Dépêche de M. d'Avaux, 25 Janvier 1690, Dublin. Dépêche du Roi, 24 Février, Versailles. Lettres écrites de Cork, 7 Mars, où arrive le 22 la flotte française avec M. de Lauzun. 1692, 6 Mai. "Mémoire du Roy pour M. le Maréchal de Bellefonds," plein-pouvoir à M. le Maréchal de Bellefonds de faire avec le Roy d'Angleterre un traité de commerce. 1692, 17 Octobre, passe-port pour les officiers de la Reine douairière d'Angleterre qui s'en retournent avec elle en Portugal, etc., etc.

Mis à dater de l'année 1695, les documents prennent un caractère politique qu'il importe de signaler plus particulièrement; il sont contenus dans le volume No. 173 dont voici l'indication des pièces les plus importantes:

RÈGNE DE GUILLAUME III.

Le rétablissement de la paix amena nécessairement l'envoi réciproque de nouveaux Ambassadeurs dans les deux Cours. Le Roi de France choisit pour le représenter et pour résider en Angleterre le MARÉCHAL COMTE DE TALLARD, Chevalier de ses ordres, Gouverneur et Lieutenant-Général du pays et comté de Bourgogne. Il fut le seul Ambassadeur de France qui ait suivi les négociations auprès de Guillaume III ou avec lui, car il partit de la cour de ce prince au mois d'Avril 1701, peu de temps avant qu'une nouvelle rupture ait éclaté entre les deux Couronnes. Le Marquis de Torcy, Secrétaire d'Etat des Affaires Étrangères, en le rappelant à Paris par sa lettre du 7 Avril 1701, lui annonçait l'envoi à Londres du SE. POUSSIN, pour tenir la correspondance. Il arriva en effet peu de jours après et résida jusqu'au mois d'Octobre, ayant alors reçu l'ordre de quitter incessamment. La correspondance d'Angleterre tenue par le Maréchal de Tallard est fort volumineuse: les ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES possèdent aussi un grand nombre de volumes contenant d'autres Dépêches et Pièces concernant son Ambassade à Londres pour les trois années et demi qu'elle dura. Les lettres du Sr. Poussin, Secrétaire Chargé d'Affaires après son départ, ont aussi été conservées.

RÈGNE D'ANNE.

Guillaume III. mourut cinq mois environ après que la rupture des relations entre la France et l'Angleterre eût été déclarée. Anne, Princesse de Danemark, à peine reconnue Reine d'Angleterre, déclara d'un commun accord avec l'Empereur et les États-généraux de Hollande, la guerre à la France et à l'Espagne. Les rapports diplomatiques officiels furent donc nuls entre la France et l'Angleterre à l'avènement de la Reine, et ils demeurèrent en cet état jusqu'au rétablissement de la paix d'Utrecht, dix ans plus tard. On pourrait arguer de cette rupture, ainsi qu'il était advenu plusieurs fois déjà, dans des circonstances semblables, que la correspondance ordinairement adressée de Londres pour le service du cabinet de France cessa complètement pendant la durée des hostilités. Il n'en fut rien et on peut dire que rarement elle fut plus considérable. Il n'y eut pas de correspondance diplomatique, puisqu'il ne pouvait y avoir de négociateur ou de chargé d'affaires accrédité par le Souverain, mais il y eut correspondance d'agents particuliers, désignés et engagés par le Secrétaire d'État. Le Maréchal de Tallard, dernier Ambassadeur de France à la Cour de Londres, et le Marquis de Torcy, Secrétaire d'État pour les Affaires Étrangères en France, organisèrent, en effet, un service d'informations d'autant plus curieux à signaler que l'un des agents choisis pour y contribuer, devint plus tard l'employé le plus actif et le plus adroit au rétablissement de la paix. Cet agent était un SR. ABBÉ FRANÇOIS GAULTIER, originaire d'un diocèse de Normandie. Lorsque le Roi Guillaume III. mourut, les deux agents qui servirent les informations d'Angleterre au cabinet de France pendant les dix années qui suivirent, étaient déjà en fonctions de correspondants depuis quelques mois, c'est-à-dire, depuis le commencement de l'année 1702. L'un n'a signé aucune de ses lettres, mais on peut, d'après des documents de chancellerie, lui reconnaître le nom de "Guenin". Il rendit service jusqu'en l'année 1710. Le second, de beaucoup supérieur par le style et l'action, était l'Abbé GAULTIER. Jusqu'au jour où il fut honoré d'un brevet d'agent du Roi à Londres pour donner poids et valeur aux commissions politiques dont il fut chargé auprès des ministres anglais, un peu avant et pendant les préliminaires de la paix, il s'abstint de signer ses lettres, puis quand il les signa, ce fut de noms qui variaient entre ceux de "Le Vasseur", "Le Vasseur, Cadet", "De l'Orme", etc. Toutes les adresses fictives dont il usait pour Paris, lui avaient été données par le Marquis de Torcy aux mains et au cabinet duquel ses lettres parvinrent, plus ou moins tardivement. Ces lettres étaient de différente nature, les unes dites "Lettres à la main" étaient des feuilles d'information sur tous les événements ordinaires du Parlement, de la Cour et de la ville de Londres, les autres étaient des lettres où le raisonnement et la narration cherchaient à avoir cours sous des termes de convention. Il en fut ainsi jusqu'au jour où ce correspondant, tantôt anonyme et tantôt travesti, fut accrédité à titre officiel, c'est-à-dire jusqu'en 1711, époque à laquelle les négociations ou plutôt les ouvertures pour le rétablissement de la paix se firent jour et prirent corps. En tous cas, il importera à tout narrateur des événements du règne de la Reine Anne et à tout historien des négociations qui aboutirent à la paix d'Utrecht de prendre une entière connaissance de la correspondance de cet agent particulier qui, en diverses occasions, révéla des qualités fort précieuses dans l'art politique.*

* Ce plus grand nombre des lettres adressées de Londres par les deux correspondants Guenin et Gaultier ne sont pas signées. Mais il est facile, avec quelque attention, de reconnaître la part de chacun. Pour les distinguer dans l'indication de leurs lettres non signées, nous devons avertir que lorsque le document est marqué ici par nous de la lettre (G.), il est du Sr. Abbé GAULTIER, et que lorsqu'il est suivi du nom de M. Guenin c'est qu'il émane de ce correspondant qui adressait ses informations à un autre Sr. Guenin, banquier à Paris, lequel les faisait remettre au Marquis de Torcy, Secrétaire d'État. Voyez ci-après notre notice pour le règne de la Reine Anne. L'Abbé Gaultier, au contraire du Sr. Guenin, dirigeait ses lettres à des noms différents reconnus au bureau des postes de France à Paris d'où elles étaient portées au cabinet des Affaires Étrangères à Versailles.

Les ARCHIVES DES AFFAIRES ÉTRANGÈRES possèdent les documents les plus variés pour toute cette époque de guerre et de négociation, aussi, dans le but d'utilité pour l'histoire que nous nous sommes proposé en dressant cette nomenclature de pièces à consulter, avons nous dû ne pas nous arrêter à la mention des seules correspondances ordinaires d'information et de négociation, mais présenter aussi le détail des documents si variés, contenus dans l'abondante série de volumes manuscrits qui s'étend, dans ces Archives, du numéro 212 au numéro 282 du recueil dit d'ANGLETERRE.

C'est ainsi qu'on trouvera mentionnés, les lettres et les mémoires du Colonel, puis Brigadier, HOOKE, si curieux à bien connaître pour l'exact exposé des affaires d'Écosse pendant la guerre générale; les lettres que se sont réciproquement adressées les Secrétaires d'État de France et d'Angleterre pendant les préliminaires et après le rétablissement de la paix; les documents nombreux, tout personnels au fils de Jacques II., dit "le Prétendant," et aux Anglais et Écossais de son parti et à son service, une quantité enfin d'autres pièces ayant un caractère officiel ou officieux qui permet, en tous cas, de les considérer pièces historiques. La correspondance de M. MÉNAGER, qui porta et discuta à Londres, par commission du Roi et du cabinet de France, les articles présentés comme bases de la paix, conclue ensuite à Utrecht, est aussi indiquée pièce par pièce.

Lorsque la paix générale fut rétablie, en 1712, des Ambassadeurs furent désignés de la part des deux Cours pour échanger et entretenir de nouveaux rapports. Le DUC D'AUMONT, Pair du Royaume, Premier Gentilhomme de la Chambre du Roi, fut l'Ambassadeur de France. Arrivé à Londres le 19 Janvier 1713, il y fit un séjour de dix mois et eut pour compagnon de plume et de négociation ce même Abbé GAULTIER que les circonstances récentes avaient rendu si familier du cabinet politique d'Angleterre. Le séjour du Duc d'Aumont en qualité d'Ambassadeur extraordinaire à Londres fut de dix mois, et M. D'IBERVILLE fut désigné pour lui succéder dans ses fonctions, avec le titre plus modeste toutefois d'Envoyé extraordinaire.

Les négociations ouvertes alors entre les deux pays pour dresser les articles de conventions de commerce nécessitèrent l'envoi de personnalités fort versées dans les affaires spéciales du trafic et de la navigation. Les SRS. ANISSEY et FÉNÉLON furent les commissaires du Roi. L'historien des affaires de France et d'Angleterre trouvera donc pour cette époque d'abondantes sources d'informations en dehors des questions ordinaires aux négociations exclusivement politiques.

M. D'IBERVILLE résidait en qualité d'Envoyé extraordinaire à la Cour de la Reine Anne lorsque mourut cette Princesse le 12 Août 1714. L'indication de sa correspondance complète va de pair avec celle de l'Abbé GAULTIER dont le séjour à Londres n'eut de fin qu'avec l'avènement du nouveau Souverain. L'Envoyé extraordinaire fut accrédité par le Roi Louis XIV en la même qualité auprès du Roi d'Angleterre George I., nouvellement proclamé. Les lettres de créance du Roi de France sont du 2 Septembre, données à Fontainebleau; mais, elles sont pour nous une limite naturelle à l'ouvrage dont ce "LÉPERTOIRE GÉNÉRAL DES CORRESPONDANCES DIPLOMATIQUES DE FRANCE EN ANGLETERRE," a été l'objet et dont il est le fruit, la commission dont nous avons été honoré par le très honorable "Master of the Rolls" ne s'étendant pas au delà du règne de la Reine Anne.

* C'est par ce billet que le correspondant se révèle au Marquis de Torcy sous son véritable nom de "FRANÇOIS GAULTIER, prêtre séculier du diocèse de Sais en Normandie." Le Secrétaire d'Etat lui avait fait, au commencement du mois, une pension de 400 écus établie sur une abbaye en Flandres.

† Le correspondant dit avoir reçu la lettre du Marquis de Torcy du 18 courant dans laquelle il lui marque avoir entre les mains son brevet de pension. Il le pria de le donner au Marquis de Billy quand il le lui demandera.

* L'ABBÉ GAULTIER, encore sous le nom de " Le Vasseur," écrivait ce jour au Marquis de Torcy ces mots significatifs pour se proposer comme agent officiellement déclaré : " Quand la paix sera faite, je croy que notre oncle, M. le Vasseur (c'est-à-dire le Secrétaire d'État, Marquis de Torcy), ne sera pas fâché d'avoir icy pour soigner une partie de ses affaires un homme tout porté qui connoisse le pays, les manieres et les mœurs des habitants, qui entende un peu le commerce et qui sache la langue et de quoy il est question."

† La première lettre pour cette année 1710 adressée par le MARQUIS DE TORCY, Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères, à l'Abbé GAULTIER, mais encore en des termes de convention, est datée de Marly le 24 Avril.

‡ Le Marquis de Torcy par une lettre du 27 Juillet avise son correspondant à Londres que la paix est rompue et que les plenipotentiaires de France sont attendus dans deux jours. Il est toutefois remarquable que le Secrétaire d'État autorise ce correspondant à se rendre à Paris, et cela en réponse à sa lettre de Londres du 22 Juillet. C'est le commencement de l'action diplomatique et du rôle important de l'Abbé Gaultier. Par la lettre du 3 Septembre, toutefois, avis lui est donné de ne pas venir à Paris même, et d'aviser de sa présence, à peu de distance.

L'histoire véritable de ces négociations offrant le plus vif intérêt, il importe d'indiquer tous les documents qui contribuent à la certitude et à la précision des faits. Les lettres du SECRÉTAIRE D'ÉTAT envoyées à l'Abbé GAULTIER à Londres sont les suivantes :

* L'Abbé GAULTIER a reçu l'ordre de se rendre à Paris. Il quitte Londres le 12 Janvier. Il attendra les ordres du SECRÉTAIRE D'ÉTAT chez les Pères de l'Oratoire de la rue Saint-Honoré, où il se fera connaître au supérieur sous le nom de "Le Sr. De l'Orme."

† L'Abbé est revenu à Londres avec les propositions pour la paix. Voir une Note de la main du Marquis de Torcy "sur ce que le Sr. Gaultier dira."

‡ L'Abbé G. repart pour la France.

§ Il revient à Londres le 2 Mai.

|| C'est la première lettre adressée avec la suscription de "Monseigneur," c'est-à-dire au "Secrétaire d'Etat" personnellement, et signée "François Gaultier."

† L'abbé fit encore dans ce même temps différentes allées et venues pour le service des négociations. Il revient de Paris le Lundi, 21 Septembre, à Calais et arrive à Londres, où on le voit de nouveau revenir le 26 Novembre, et présenter à M. DE ST. JOHN, Secrétaire d'État, les lettres de Versailles, 18 Novembre, qui l'accréditent "Agent du Roy en Angleterre."

‡ Le Roi avait nommé le 21 Octobre au matin les plénipotentiaires pour la paix, MM. le Maréchal d'UXELLES, l'Abbé DE POLIGNAC et le SR. MÉNAGER.

Nota.—Les volumes de la correspondance de Londres ici indiqués contiennent aussi pour l'année 1711 trente lettres non signées qui sont feuilles d'informations et d'avis curieux à consulter.

De plus, les volumes MS. Nos. 234 et 235 renferment une suite de lettres particulières datées et écrites de Londres par un correspondant italien du nom d'Azzurini, qui, fort malheureusement, avait été recommandé au Marquis de Torcy par le Cardinal Gaultier. Les lettres et les quelques mémoires du Comte Azzurini, qui signait "Le Voyageur à Londres," forment un ensemble de quarante documents de la valeur desquels il importe de se défier. Les pièces des mois de Février, Mai, Septembre et Octobre 1711 se trouvent dans le volume No. 235, du folio 178 au folio 539 passim, et celles des mois de Juillet et Août du folio 2 au folio 221 passim. Un juste châtiment était réservé à ce serviteur infidèle. Le 28 Août de l'année suivante, le Marquis de Torcy écrivait au Lord Bolingbroke "Azzurini entre aujourd'hui à la Bastille. Je vous envoie, My Lord, la copie des avis qu'il a donnés en Hollande. Je les ay reçus de Mrs. les Plénipotentiaires."

Nota.—Les volumes Nos. 237, 238, 239, 241 et 242 contiennent aussi cinquante-quatre lettres environ non signées et datées de Londres pour cette année 1712 et trente-neuf Dépêches du Marquis de Torcy à l'Abbé Gaultier.

* L'Abbé GAULTIER, appelé en France par le Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères, arriva à Calais le 20 Mars et à Versailles le 23.

† Sur un voyage à Utrecht avec envoi de six passeports pour la sûreté d'autant de bâtimens passant d'Angleterre dans les ports du royaume et du royaume en Hollande.

‡ L'Abbé Gaultier fut de retour à Londres le 3 Mai : il était allé à Utrecht entre le 23 Mars et le 25 Avril, toujours employé de la façon la plus active dans la négociation pour ce qui concernait le rétablissement de la paix et des relations entre la France et l'Angleterre.

§ Le correspondant donne avis au Marquis de Torcy qu'on appellera désormais M. de Saint-John, LORD VICOMTE BOLINGBROKE.

|| L'Abbé Gaultier avise le Secrétaire d'État des Affaires Étrangères, Marquis de Torcy, que la Reine enverra vers lui le Lord BOLINGBROKE et M. PRIOR pour terminer le grand ouvrage qu'il a commencé il y a deux ans. Le 13 Août, ordre fut donné aux maîtres de poste en France pour le Sr. Abbé GAULTIER et les voyageurs qui seraient avec lui.

Mylord BOLINGBROKE partit en effet de Londres le Samedi 13 avec MM. Prior et Gaultier. Arrivés à Calais le 14, vont coucher à Montreuil le 15, à Amiens le 16 et furent à Paris le 17, où les trouva le Marquis de Torcy. Le 18 et le 19 eurent lieu les conférences et le traité fut signé. Le lord et sa même compagnie de M. Prior et de l'abbé quittèrent Paris le 26 Août et furent à Londres le 2 Septembre après-midi.

¶ Le Duc D'AUMONT fut alors désigné pour aller en Angleterre en qualité d'Ambassadeur extraordinaire.

* L'Abbé Gaultier partit l'un des premiers jours de Mai. Voici dans quels termes M. le Duc d'Aumont, Ambassadeur extraordinaire, l'annonçait au Marquis de Torcy dans sa Dépêche de Londres, 21 Mai: "L'Abbé Gaultier va jouir du fruit de ses services et de l'effet de vos bontés pour lui dont il s'est certainement rendu digne par son attention à profiter pour le bien du service des circonstances où il s'est trouvé et à suivre avec zèle et vivacité toutes vos instructions." M. de Torcy fit en effet part à l'Abbé, par sa lettre du 24 Avril, du don l'abbaye de Savigny que le Roi lui a accordé et que la mort du Cardinal de Janson venait de rendre vacante. Le présent était de 12,000 livres de rente.

ANNÉE 1714 (Janvier—Septembre).

ÉTAT DES DOCUMENTS SUPPLÉMENTAIRES RELATIFS AUX NÉGOCIATIONS AVEC L'ANGLETERRE ET À DES AFFAIRES PARTICULIÈRES PENDANT LA DERNIÈRE ANNÉE DU RÈGNE DE LA REINE ANNE. Affaires Étrangères. Sér. Angl. Reg. Noa. 240-264.

1714. Documents principaux relatifs à l'affaire dite du commerce avec l'Angleterre en 1713 et 1714.

NOTA.—Par l'article 9 du traité de commerce et de navigation conclu à Utrecht le 11 Avril 1713 entre les Ambassadeurs extraordinaires et Plénipotentiaires de France et ceux de la Grande Bretagne, il avait été convenu et accordé que des commissaires de l'une et de l'autre part s'assembleraient à Londres pour examiner et régler les difficultés qui regardent le commerce de l'une et de l'autre nation et les points dont on n'aurait pu convenir par le dit traité et dont on avait fait une mention particulière dans les actes signés séparément.

* "A Londres, Lundy, 13 Aoust 1714." C'est la lettre par laquelle l'Abbé Gaultier annonce au Marquis de Torcy l'événement de la mort de la Reine de la Grande Bretagne. Il manifeste le désir de quitter Londres pour aller rendre compte de la situation des partis.

† Le Secrétaire d'Etat des Affaires Étrangères rappelle aussitôt en France le Sr. Abbé Gaultier, qui partit de Londres le 10 ou le 11 Septembre et arriva le 12 à Calais d'où il écrivit le lendemain au Marquis de Torcy.
